Diphtheria Antitoxin Exhausted Stricken City Issues Appeal for Aid

EPIDEMIC GAINS GROUND

Many Would Die Before Dog Trains Could Arrive With Fresh Supplies

By Associated Press

Washington, D. C. — Authorization for Roy S. Darling, special agent of the department of justice, to make an airplane flight with diphtheria antitoxin from Fairbanks to Nome has been forwarded to Alaska.

Nome, Alaska—The diphtheria epidemic Thursday took a serious turn and the citizens through the local correspondent of the Associated Press addressed the following appeal that official Washington hasten antitoxin in serum by airplane from Fairbanks, rather than force them to wait for dog team delivery.

"Help immediately," Help by airplane with antitoxin serum. Is the appeal of Nome, not for the soundings, but especially for the children, the young Americans of tomorrow.

"We do not want to ask Soviet Russia to send an ice breaker with antitoxin, nor do we ask that the Sherandoah or the Los Angeles be despatched, but please get Uncle Sam to send an airplane from Fairbanks with two redoubled men, who have interested to fly to Nome in four hours' time in order to bring relief.

"There is a shipment of antitoxin from Juneau due in Nenana Feb. 3, which if sent by airplane will beat the dog team by several days to Nome which may save the lives of many.

"Everything looked favorable yesterday but today conditions have reversed. More now cases have been reported. Dr. Welch states that all four and five year old antitoxin has been used up and only one good dose of six year old antitoxin left.

"There have been about 75,000 units of old antitoxin used which has been responsible for holding the epidemic in check to date, but now that it is used up and more cases appearing the situation becomes serious, due to the fact that if we must wait for dog team to arrive we cannot expect relief much before Feb. 13."

The appeal concluded, with a request to the Associated Press to bring the situation to the attention of officials at Washington.

GOCHNAUER TALKS TO CONCRETE CONCLAVE

Milwaukee—W. H. Carey, Wisconsin Rapids, elected president of the Concrete Products Association, a national organization and is retiring as president of the Wisconsin Concrete Products association.

The election was held at a meeting of the National organization late Thursday.

C. O. Gochnauer of Appleton, stressed the advantage to be gained by concrete men by putting the best products on the market. He also called attention to the value of newspaper advertising in the concrete business.

BROADWAY BREVITIES OFFICIALS WILL BE SENTENCED SATURDAY

By Associated Press
New York—Sentence will be imposed Saturday upon Stephen G. Clow, publisher of Broadway Brevities, Andrew S. Brown and Nat Kunness, advertising solicitors of the magazine who were found guilty Thursday by a federal jury on charges of using the mails to defraud. Charles J. Greene, another employee, was acquitted.

Clow is out Friday on $5,000 bail following his counsel's promise that he would appear Saturday for sentence. Brown is out on $3,000 bail and Kunness on $500.

At the trial which has been in progress before Judge Mack since Jan. 8, testimony was given by Peggy Hopkins Joyce, now Countess Morner, by Helen Lee Worthington of the Folies, Tex Rickard and Edith Bobe that they had paid the magazine for advertisements in order that adverse articles about them would be discontinued.

It was also said at the trial that Mrs. Kahn, Julius Fleischmann, Jess Lacker, W. A. Harriman, and Col. Jacob Ruppert gave Clow checks but they did not testify.

WIDOW CONFESSES SHE MURDERED HER HUSBAND

By Associated Press
Hurler—Emma Sigler went on the witness stand here Friday morning to tell with her own lips how she killed her husband, Andrew Sigler, and how Andrew Anderson, alias Gudieski, lifer at Waupun prison, shouldered the blame against her wishes.

All through the trial self defense has been the contention of defense counsel and at every step he has sought to hear that out.

The state sought to connect Mayor W. T. Lennon with the case Thursday afternoon and Gudieski admitted having made certain statements in the presence of W. B. Foster, the district attorney, and a stenographer.

He admitted that he had said: "Well, anyway, Mayor Lennon and Mrs. Sigler was supposed to be something between them, some of which I understood and from that time there has been trouble in the family."

Mayor Lennon has an office over the hotel conducted by the Siglers.

FIND BODY OF MISSING MAN HIDDEN IN SHOCK

Wadena, Minn.—Benton and shot to death, the body of a man believed to be John Goings of Carleton, N. D. was found concealed in a corn shock on a farm near here late Thursday, more than two months after Goings' disappearance.

Description of the victim tallied with that of Goings, according to the father's brother, George Goings, who left Jamestown, N. D. Thursday night for Wadena to confirm or disprove the identity of the man as his brother.

GANG LEADER REFUSES TO REVEAL ATTACKERS

By Associated Press
Chicago—Police hopes that Johnny Torrio, shot last Thursday by gunmen near Saturday night, might aid in finding his assailants, have been ended since the gangland chieftain reported recovering, has refused to identify any suspects.

He has told police it is a waste of time to ask him to betray his attackers.

GIRL'S SLAYER MEETS DEATH IN CHAIR CALMLY

By Associated Press
Michigan City, Ind.—Peter Vergolini, a steel worker of Gary, Ind., was electrocuted at the state prison here early Friday for the murder of Annie Tomelick, 10-year-old Serbian girl, whom he assaulted and then strangled to death at Gary last September. Vergolini met death with the same stoical indifference that has marked his attitude since his arrest, according to Warden Fogarty.

COAST GUARDS SAVE CREW OF GROUNDING SUB

S-48 Goes Ashore in Portsmouth Harbor in Driving Wind and Cold

By Associated Press

Portsmouth, N. H.—The crew of the submarine S-48 which was driven ashore off the entrance to Portsmouth harbor Thursday night, was taken off by coast guardmen at 3:30 Friday morning. The men were suffering from exposure and their clothing was frozen. The submarine had been leaking badly, coast guardmen said.

The crews from the Wallis Sands and Wood Island coast guard stations which had driven ineffectually all night to reach the stranded vessel as it pounded on the rocks off Point Jaffrey, had better success Friday when the subsiding seas left the S-48 resting in a bed of sand in Little Harbor.

The members of the crew were taken on a tug to Fort Stark where they were warmed and fed before being transferred to the navy yard. Three of the men were so benumbed by the cold that they had to be carried aboard the tug but they revived quickly and after they had been at the fort for a short time all the men appeared in good condition.

The submarine was leaking and had become so filled with chlorine gas that all hands were forced to go on deck some time before they were rescued. It lay in Little Harbor, half on a sandy bottom and half in the channel. Naval men said they considered it unsafe to attempt to pull her into deep water in the high seas running and with the puncture in her hull.

The submarine S-61 and the naval tender Chevalier which had accompanied the S-48 from New London and which anchored outside when the S-48 grounded, came into Portsmouth harbor safely Friday.

RAISING OF MARGINS QUIETS WHEAT MARKET

By Associated Press
Chicago—Grains increased Friday in the speculators' galleries of the board of trade, but the number of brokers in the pits below thinned out and the wildness of price fluctuations as well as the volume of business diminished to a notable degree. The secret of the comparative steadiness of the wheat market in particular was the fact that deposits of cash required for the privilege of trade had been raised in some commission houses to as high as 30 to 35 cents a bushel.

Margins of five cents a bushel are the ordinary requirement from patrons of commission houses. Friday the general rule was a minimum of 20 cents.

Another cooling influence of the submergence of speculative buyers was the fact that world shipments of wheat were expanding to a wonderful extent. Australian shipments especially were about doubled.

Between the effect of extraordinary margin calls and of the evidence that unusual efforts were being put forth to meet the world demand for breadstuffs, the wheat market Friday held within a range of hardly more than 1 1/2 cents during the first couple of hours of trading. In some transactions, the market showed a slight advance in price, and the May delivery touched $2.04 a bushel. For considerable part of the time however, the market averaged somewhat lower.

ELECT FIEDLER CHIEF OF STATE HEALTH BOARD

By Associated Press
Madison—Dr. Otto Fiedler, Sheboygan, was elected president of the Wisconsin State Board of Health at its meeting here Thursday. It was announced Friday. The board voted to request the legislature to provide for meetings of the board in January and July instead of January and June, as at present, and to permit the sale at cost of certain health publications issued with the imprint of the health department.

Sentences Are Imposed After Sealed Verdict Is Returned, Urging Clemency

By Associated Press

New York—Gaston B. Means, former department of justice agent, was found guilty by a jury in federal court Friday on charges of conspiring to bribe government officials and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10,000 and to serve a two-year penitentiary term.

Thomas B. Felder, Means' attorney who was convicted of a similar charge, was fined $10,000. The sentences were imposed by Federal Judge Landley after the jury had returned a sealed verdict which had found the defendants guilty, but recommended clemency. The court denied motions to set aside the verdict on the ground that it was contrary to the weight of evidence.

Felder said he would immediately file an appeal. He expressed confidence that the conviction would be reversed by the circuit court of appeals and declared his innocence of the charge notwithstanding the verdict of the jury.

Means had nothing to say but his counsel said an appeal would also be filed in his case.

Means is already under sentence of two years and a fine of $10,000 for violation of the Volstead act but Friday's sentence, on the motion of Efram C. Todd special United States attorney, is not to be concurrent with the previous one. If Felder's sentence is confirmed by the higher court he will be disbarred from practice of law.

VET BUREAU CONSPIRACY CASE IS GIVEN TO JURY

By Associated Press
Chicago—The Veterans Bureau conspiracy case was given to the jury in federal court here at 11:30 A. M.

Judge George Carpenter's instructions to the jury required more than an hour. He cautioned against giving undue weight to the testimony of Elias H. Mortimer, the chief witness for the prosecution and a party to the conspiracy on which the trial was based.

He warned also that evidence touching upon matters not directly connected with the alleged conspiracy to defraud hospital contractors should receive scant consideration.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA ADOPTS ELECTRIC CHAIR

By Associated Press
Washington, D. C.—Hanging was abolished and execution by the electric chair was substituted in the District of Columbia Friday when a bill for that purpose was signed by President Coolidge.

G. O. P. Chief Defends Ousting Insurgents

Washington, D. C.—During another round of debate in the house Friday over the activities of the LaFollette Insurgents, Representative Longworth, the Republican leader, defended his party's decision to exclude the dozen LaFollette followers from party councils.

Mr. Longworth said he had reliable information that the Insurgents who were not invited to the Republican caucus to be held Feb. 27, had not only openly opposed the Republican national ticket in the 1924 campaign but had campaigned in various states against Republican senatorial and congressional candidates. He made this statement despite a denial in the house Thursday by Representative Fear of Wisconsin, that the campaign activities of the Insurgent house members had gone that far.

Newspaper accounts of speeches by several members of the Insurgent group were quoted by the Republican leader as showing the Insurgents had spoken against Republican candidates for congress. Several Insurgents interrupted to deny the accuracy of these quotations.

The leader then declared the LaFollette supporters after the campaign had asserted the Progressives "had just begun to fight" and that "they were enlisted for life" in the Progressive movement. They had avowed their purpose, he said, to defeat the Republican party in the 1926 congressional campaign and their "battle cry" was to "oust the Republicans."

Representative King, Republican, interrupted to remark that Theodore Roosevelt in 1912 had announced himself in his own district as being a "hide-bound Republican." Mr. King asked why the Insurgents should seek to propose expulsion from the party when nothing was done to those who bolted in 1912.

Replying that the 1912 Progressives returned the Republican fold, Mr. Longworth expressed the opinion that Roosevelt been alive he would have supported President Coolidge in 1924.

ATTACKS BY ANIMALS FORCE CHILDREN TO CARRY GUNS TO CLASS

Wenatche, Wash. — The danger of attacks by wild animals on students attending schools in the mountain districts near here has become so great that many of the pupils, even the younger children, are carrying rifles to school with them. This practice resulted largely from the recent attack by a cougar on Jimmy Echlbauer who was killed and partly devoured by the animal.

Late Thursday a report was received here of a narrow escape when Vernon Smith, 13, had an encounter Wednesday with a lynx. The Smith boy was returning to his home from school when a lynx suddenly appeared. He had a small caliber rifle with him and shot and wounded the animal. This angered it and it was only by fighting fiercely and with the aid of his dog that the lad managed to escape possible death. A farmer arrived on the scene with a shotgun and slew the animal before the boy was overcome.

NEW YORK CENTRAL LIMITED BLOCKED BY HEAVY DRIFTS

New York and New England States Struggle Under Heaviest Snow in Years

By Associated Press

Clyde, N. Y.—The New York Central's Twentieth Century limited from Chicago, and the third section of train No. 8, the Wolverine, stalled here by snow, were able to resume their journey toward New York City shortly before 11:30 A. M.

The drifts had mounted to nine feet at some places and the snow was five feet on the level in the western part of the state, reports said.

The Century had been stalled here since early morning. No hardships were suffered by the passengers. The trains were well heated and few of the travelers ventured out into the more than two feet of snow on the ground.

The town of Clyde was practically cleaned out of foodstuffs before the trains left. New York Central officials focused into the town and before the forenoon were well advanced nearly 200 passengers, some of them still in their berths, had been served hot coffee, sandwiches, rolls and fruit.

New York—With street crossings clogged with slush and sidewalks located under a deceptive layer of wet snow, New York Friday struggled with the aftermath of its fifth severe snow of the winter.

Street cleaners who had not succeeded in clearing away the drifts from the previous storms, waded all night through the puddles of water dammed with slush from Thursday's snow in an attempt to have the main avenues free of snow Friday morning.

NAMED FOR VACANCY

Sixth, Attorney General Stone is named for the supreme court vacancy caused by the resignation of Justice McKenna and rumors begin to spread that he has gone even a step further toward preferring Mr. Wheeler by bringing a request for his removal to the District of Columbia as well as Montana.

Seventh, the department of justice, according to Mr. Stone feels that the air in Montana is full of charges and countercharges. Mr. Wheeler's friends and counsel think the District of Columbia is dominated by the Republican administration and the government and that it would be unfair to try a case here which should be tried in Montana.

Eighth, Attorney General Stone insists it isn't the same case but refuses to divulge exactly where the difference is, giving as his reason that he does not want to disclose evidence before trial. "Initially the same witnesses and transactions are involved but Mr. Stone contends now

MURDER SUSPECTS BACK EACH OTHERS' ALIBIS

Baraboo—Salvatore Di Martino, charged with murder in connection with the slaying of Policeman Herbert Dregger in Madison on the night of Dec. 2, resumed his testimony in circuit court here Friday morning. He took the stand late Thursday and supported the testimony of Frank Vitale, co-defendant, in an effort to establish an alibi.

Di Martino testified that he and Vitale were at the latter's home when Dregger was shot and did not leave it until almost an hour afterwards. He declared that he was assaulted at the police station following his arrest.

WHEELER CASE CAUSES QUEER LEGAL MUDDLE

Stone Can't Stop Trial Now for Fear of Seemingly to Seek Office

Friends of Montana Senator Claim He Has Nothing to Fear

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright 1925 by The Post Pub. Co.
Washington, D. C. — The queerest muddle since President Roosevelt began using government sleuths to investigate United States senators has developed in connection with the effort of the department of justice to convict Senator Wheeler of Montana for alleged violation of a law which forbids a member of congress from accepting fees for services as a lawyer before government departments.

It's a queer muddle because all the facts have not yet been put on the table and because the fire of political vengeance burns brightly over the whole controversy. Here is the sequence of events.

Senator Wheeler, Democrat, leads the investigation of Attorney General Daugherty, Republican, whose resignation is demanded by President Coolidge in the midst of his own campaign for the presidential nomination.

DENY REPRISAL

Second, the machinery of the department of justice which was dominated by Mr. Daugherty is used to bring a case in Montana against Senator Wheeler. Denial is made that this is a reprisal but Mr. Wheeler's friends insist it could not be otherwise. Investigations connected with the Republican political organization outside the government assist in building up the case against Mr. Wheeler.

Third, the senate takes up the charges and by overwhelming vote exonerates Senator Wheeler. Mr. Daugherty, of Idaho, a capable lawyer, sifts the charges and the senate agrees with him that they are not serious.

Fourth, Harlan P. Stone is named attorney general. He consults with his subordinates who were appointed by Mr. Daugherty and naturally friendly to him and receives the impression that notwithstanding the action of the senate the case should be pursued. He goes into the case and announces he will continue its prosecution.

Fifth, Senator Wheeler becomes the vice presidential candidate on a radical ticket. Conservatives become eager to see a blow struck at the radicals. While the case is allowed to drag during the campaign, it is revived after election.

Road Program Is Ready To Report

BLOODY HERRIN QUIET ONCE MORE AS TROOPS LEAVE AFTER BURIALS

By Associated Press

Herrin, Ill.—With the last of the victims of last Saturday night's shooting orgy buried, Herrin Friday resumed a quiet aspect and was preparing for another era of peace following the departure of troops which had been on guard since early last Sunday.

S. Glenn Young, Ku Klux Klan dry valder, who with Ora Thomas, deputy sheriff, an opponent of Young's, and two bystanders was killed in a local hotel, was buried Thursday. Members of the Klan in full regalia marched in the funeral procession and stood guard over the body as it lay in the Fire Baptist church prior to the saying of the funeral services. Despite the fact that the Klansmen appeared in their robes there were no untoward incidents.

Meanwhile members of the coroner's jury were trying to find witnesses to the shooting in a final effort to clear up the affair. The jury will meet Saturday following Friday's recess in what probably will prove to be its final session.

The testimony of Mrs. Ora Thomas concerning the action of armed men in offering to attack Dr. J. T. Black at Herrin hospital after the shooting, will be developed and an attempt will be made to find a man said to have told friends he saw the shot. Fred that killed Thomas.

Glenn Young's denial of information that he had been a part of the little chance that the jury can make any definite findings except that Young was killed by Thomas.

NEW CUSTOMS REGIME INSTITUTED IN SARRE

Geneva—The Sarre basin, the political status of which will be determined by plebiscite in 1935, has entered upon a new customs regime, which the governing commission of the Sarre declares it will endeavor to carry out without causing difficulties or grave embarrassments to the inhabitants.

A report made to the League of nations Friday on the situation in the Sarre makes no attempt to hide the importance of the new administration under the French customs system, which the governing commission of the Sarre declares it will endeavor to carry out without causing difficulties or grave embarrassments to the inhabitants.

After explaining that the period for the exemption of all customs charges ceased Jan. 10 by virtue of the terms of the Versailles treaty, the government commission informs the league that it will exert its efforts to diminish the difficulties which the change inevitably will bring in its train.

MEDICS FAIL TO NOTE CHANGE IN SUN YAT SEN

By Associated Press

Peking—There was no change Friday morning in the condition of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, the south China leader, who recently underwent an operation for cancer of the liver.

The previous report from Peking said Dr. Sun had spent a comfortable night, that he was suffering no pain and his physicians considered his condition satisfactory.

FRIENDS USE RADIO TO SEEK ENGLISH PIANIST

By Associated Press

New York—Failing to find any clue in their search for Ethel Leginska, English pianist who disappeared on Monday night, the police have resorted to the radio.

A description has been broadcast at the request of her friends, who are growing more apprehensive for her safety.

According to her secretary, Miss Leginska had no money when she disappeared. The police have visited several pawn shops in the vicinity of the pianist's home in an effort to discover whether she pawned either her fur coat or jewels. They had no success.

Measure Carries Distribution of $14,500,000 in State and Federal Aid

FAVOR CHILD LABOR LAW

Urge Congress to Take Action of Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Project

Madison—The huge state highway program carrying distribution of approximately $14,500,000 in state and federal aid for road projects in cities, towns and counties, was to be reported in the state legislature Friday by the joint highway committee, according to an announcement by Senator J. E. Cushman of Denmark, chairman.

Senator Cushman confirmed a statement of important last minute changes in the highway bill as announced Thursday through the Associated Press.

"The report of the 60-40 ratio of distributing the cost of the $8,000,000 net balance after all of the registered road program has been taken care of is correct," Senator Cushman said.

Commenting on the bill, Senator Cushman said: "The committee made the important change in the ratio of distribution at the eleventh hour to give counties having larger cities a better break on the money that will go back to counties from this large revenue. It makes the distribution a fair proposition to all counties concerned. Committee hearings on the program undoubtedly will be taken up next week."

"This has been a gigantic task but the labor upon it is well worth the effort for I believe we have offered the state a highway program that will meet the approval of all citizens."

FAVOR SAUTHOFF BILL

The Sauthoff bill for the creation of an additional circuit court judge for the Ninth Judicial district, comprising the counties of Dane and Sauk, has received a favorable report for passage by the joint legislative finance committee, according to an announcement by Senator George Staudenmayer of Portage.

Senator Staudenmayer said the bill would be so reported Friday and that a motion would be made to obtain unanimous consent for immediate passage of the bill in the senate. If passed, the bill will go immediately to the assembly for concurrence.

The same action was taken by the committee on the accompanying Sauthoff bill which would abolish the senior superior court judgeship in Dane co.

Important committee action taken Thursday was the decision to report for passage the Padway resolution to ratify the child labor amendment, by the committee on agriculture, labor and industries, decision to report for passage the Milwaukee court bill (Quick) which would give Milwaukee co two additional judges in the circuit court of that judicial district by the senate judiciary committee and the deferring indefinitely of the Titus bill and Schuman bills which would prevent appointment of the committee on state and local government.

Decision to report the child labor ratification measure came after an all-afternoon public hearing where the subject was discussed by Miss Jane Adams of Hull House, Chicago, and by a score of other speakers.

Congress is urged to take immediate action to make possible early completion of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterway project in a resolution approved without a record vote by the assembly Friday morning.

The resolution, introduced by Frank J. Ciesynski, of Milwaukee, states that the prosperity of Wisconsin as well as the whole United States is in a large measure dependent upon lower rates of transportation on its agricultural and manufactured products to markets in eastern states and foreign countries. It now goes to the senate.

WOMAN CHECK FORGER UNDER ARREST IN OSHKOSH

OSHKOSH POLICE NAB GIRL WANTED BY POLICE HERE

Fond du Lac Young Woman Caught in Store Where She Had Passed Bad Check

Appleton police were notified Friday morning of the arrest of a Mrs. O. F. Nelson in Oshkosh on charges of check forgery. The description of the woman agrees with that of the woman check forger who signed herself by that name in several illegal transactions in Appleton last month. She is understood to have issued about twenty-two bad checks in Fond du Lac, between eight and ten in Oshkosh, three in Appleton and also several in Neenah and Menasha. The checks were for $12 each and were cashed at local stores on Dec. 13. They were drawn on the Manufacturers' National bank of Neenah. The girl's real name is said to be Margaret Connery and her home is in Fond du Lac. She is about 19 years of age. When she was in Appleton she impersonated a school girl and went about with books under her arm. Among the signatures which she is said to have used in various cities are Mrs. M. Raymond, Mrs. J. Raymond and A. Nelson. She eluded arrest last week in Fond du Lac, when the police went to her home. They were told she was sick in bed, and after they left the girl dressed and fled to Oshkosh. No sooner did she arrive in Oshkosh when she began buying clothing at various stores and paying with checks dated several days ahead. She was arrested at the Gordon Clark house where she had previously passed a check for $33 in payment for a coat, hat and a pair of shoes, which she was wearing at the time. Appleton police say the girl will not be sent here for prosecution as a medical examination has revealed sufficient evidence to send her to the industrial home for women at Taycheedah.

Your Income Tax

Traveling expenses form an important item in the returns of many taxpayers. The revenue act of 1924 provides that traveling expenses in the form of meals and lodging when away from home solely on a business trip may be deducted by a taxpayer from the gross income in determining net income upon which the tax is to be assessed. On a journey for other than business purposes, railroad fares are personal expenses and the costs of meals and lodging are living expenses. Therefore, they cannot be deducted. If a salesman is not reimbursed by his employer for his traveling expenses, or if employed on a commission basis with no expense allowance, his entire traveling expenses may be deducted from the gross income. If he receives a salary and is also repaid for traveling expenses, he should include in his return of gross income the amount of repayment and may deduct such expenses. A salesman receiving a salary and an allowance for meals and lodging should include the allowance in gross income, from which may be deducted the cost of meals and lodging. Only such traveling expenses as are reasonable and necessary in the conduct of the business and directly attributable to it may be deducted. Examples are payment for the use of a sample room, or the hire of vehicles used in visiting customers. A taxpayer claiming a deduction for traveling expenses must attach to his return a statement showing the nature of the business in which engaged; number of days away from home during the taxable year on account of business; total amount of expenses incident to meals and lodging while absent from home on business; total amount of other expenses incident to travel and claimed as a deduction. Among the "other expenses" are tips, which are held to be a part of traveling expenses, provided they are reasonable in amount. Claims for traveling expenses must be substantiated when required by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue by records showing in detail the amount and nature of the expenses incurred. Substantiation may be made by their homes to their places of business are not permitted to deduct the cost of transportation, it being a personal expense.

MAKE ANOTHER EFFORT TO BOOST SALARIES OF STATE LEGISLATORS

Madison—The usual session amendment to the state constitution raising the salaries of members of the legislature has been introduced in the assembly by Frank J. Weber of Milwaukee. The amendment provides that the salary of the legislators be raised from $500 for the term to $1,500. Before it can become a law, it must be passed by two sessions of the legislature and then submitted to a vote of the people. A similar amendment was voted down at the April election in 1914 by a large majority.

Deaf Youth Wins Honors At College

Fifteen Lawrence college seniors, five of whom are of Appleton, were elected to Phi Beta Kappa in an announced by Prof. J. H. Griffith in chapel Thursday. The students to receive this high scholastic honor are: Charlotte Bartleson, Saraville; Edna Becker, Appleton; Lurene Burgen, Lake Linden, Mich.; Jean Brigham, Appleton; Maurice Cahall, Appleton; Roger Collinge, Hartford; Lester Emans, Appleton; Horace Gillespie, Hancock, Mich.; Harold Hamilton, Merrill; Frank Heck, Racine; Jean Jamison, Neenah; Charles Marsh, Denver, Colo.; George Shaw, Appleton; Gertrude Thuss, Marshfield, Ellen Tutton, Palmyra. Special honor is due Horace Gillespie, who although totally deaf, has done remarkable work in all classes as to rank him among the highest in his class. He is majoring in chemistry and is doing special research work under Dr. L. A. Foutz, head of the department. Mr. Gillespie is very adept at reading lips, and by sitting near a professor lecturing, he is able to get practically complete notes. He graduated from the Hancock high school in three years, and was valedictorian of his class. Phi Beta Kappa elections from the junior class will occur some time in the third quarter, Dr. Griffith announced.

JUNK AND FISH LITTER STREET AS TRUCKS CRASH

A collision between a junk dealer's truck and a fish peddler's truck occurred at Madison and Washington streets at about 2 o'clock Friday morning. For a while the air was full not only of the smell of fish and junk but also of strong language, especially when the drivers viewed the disorderly array of their wares, and the damaged condition of their cars. The junk truck, although having the biggest load, suffered the greatest damage. A front wheel was broken off, while the other vehicle had only a bent fender and a broken window glass.

BLACKHAWK CAGE TEAM PLAYS ONEIDA TONIGHT

Nine members of the Blackhawk club accompanied by Robert Wood, club leader and H. A. Dittmore, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., left Friday afternoon for Oneida where they will meet the junior team of the Indians in a basketball game at Epworth hall in the evening. Coach Wood will start Greenz at center, Krueger and Christen at forwards, and Brock and Demand at guards. Gebheim, Moore, Koss and Breich will act as substitutes. The trip will be made in cars.

THREE BOYS INITIATED INTO CARDINAL CLUB

Walter Knoll, George Lutz and Nathan Specker were initiated into the Cardinal club at the regular meeting Thursday evening at the Y. M. C. A. The new members were entertained at a supper at 6:15 and a social hour after the meeting. The club officially adopted the program of the Y. M. C. A. and a point system was started. The meeting was concluded by discussion of several business matters. Boys' club of Appleton Vocational school will postpone their regular meeting Friday evening because of the basketball game between Appleton Vocational school and Kimberly High school at the Y. M. C. A. The club will attend the game in a body.

LAWRENCE STUDENT WILL TALK AT BOYS' MEETING

George Skewes of Rutledge, Lawrence college debater and well-known boys' worker, will be the speaker at the meeting of the boys' division of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon. Mr. Skewes has taken part in boys' meetings at the local association for the last two years. Three reels of motion pictures will be shown and a short program will follow. H. A. Dittmore, boys' work secretary, is in charge of the program.

From Girlhood To Motherhood
Through all these periods of their existence thousands of women tell on, often suffering with backache, pains in side, headaches and nervousness, all telltale symptoms of some local derangement. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one great remedy that will overcome such ailments. All over America women are telling other women how this wonderful medicine has restored them to health and the joy of living. This accounts for the tremendous demand for this popular medicine for women. adv.

Poultry Symphonic Choir Gives Annual Concert In Armory G

The largest choir Appleton has ever welcomed has started its four-day concert in Armory G. Over 700 voices, carefully trained for the occasion and including tenors, basses, sopranos and altos, are performing for visitors from all over the county. Some of the artists are prize winners, both in beauty and physical fitness. They come from all parts of the state and country, even from England. The concert starts at sunrise and ends at dusk, it varies from the shrill clear tones of a soloist to the magnificent volume of 700 voices. The dresses and coats of the singers are of greater interest to the visitors and there is much comment on the whiteness and fluffiness of the party frocks of the Wyandotte sisters, the smart suits worn by Golden Seabright and the magnificent combs affected by all of the vocalists. Prizes are to be awarded at the end of the performers who have won the approval of the judges. And with the eyes of the city turned upon them, the feathered entries at the Fox River Poultry and Pot Stock association show are preening and parading in the wire coops in the armory. Entries range from white Silkes, small and timid, to the overbearing Black Langshans, who are so large that the coops in which they are housed had to be made larger. There is the ragged Kiewie, who is to the huge Langshans what the poodle dog is to the St. Bernard. Snow white doves, owned by L. F. Busher, trained Angora cats, and three silver foxes exhibited by the Calumet Silver Black Fox ranch of Chilton, are the features of the show. An exceptionally large variety of birds is displayed at this show by poultry fanciers. Anyone who imagines that the raising of chickens is a dying art and only practiced by persons who sell to cold storage firms had better visit the show in the armory and find for himself the large number of poultry raisers in Appleton, Outagamie-co and Wisconsin. The judges have started their work and tags announcing first, second, third, fourth and fifth prizes are fastened to some of the coops. And the creatures behind these coops, as if knowing of their superiority, ruffle their feathers and shrilly defy all competitors. The show will continue through Saturday and Sunday.

GREEN BAY SOLDIERS CONDUCT S. A. MEETING

Captain Edward Shaw gave an interesting sermon to the Salvation Army and to the public Thursday evening in the army rooms. Captain John Berling and soldiers of Green Bay will have charge of the services Friday evening. They also will furnish the music. There will be open air services at 7:30 on the corner of Col lege-ave and Appleton-st.

ONE DAY LEFT TO PAY TAXES WITHOUT PENALTY

Tax collections took a big jump on Wednesday and Thursday, as the end of the period is drawing near. Monday's receipts amounted to $59,032.27 and Tuesday's totaled $79,277.32. This brings the total collected since Jan. 1 to $675,255.54, or about two-thirds of the tax warrant. Saturday will be the last for taxpayers to escape the 2 per cent penalty which will be imposed on delinquent taxes.

COUNTY MEN ATTEND STOCK SALES MEETING

JACK REELECTED COUNTY PRESIDENT OF EQUITY UNION

Dairy Consumption and Membership Campaigns Are Launched at Meeting

Harry Jack was elected president of Outagamie-co union of the American Society of Equity at the annual meeting at Grand theater, New London, Wednesday afternoon. Twenty delegates were present from North Cleoro, Drephal, Black Creek, Greenville, Hortonville and New London. Frank Reimer, Greenville, was named vice president, Herman Gagnow, Seymour, secretary, William

Marasch, New London, treasurer, and Fred Roepcke, Seymour director. The chief topic of discussion was the proposed campaign to educate the public to use more milk and dairy products. A committee will be appointed for this purpose at some time in the future. R. A. Amundson, county agricultural agent, was the principal speaker on this subject. Plans also were made for a drive to secure new members. Those who withdrew from the Equity union may be reinstated for a fee of $3 instead of $4 if this is done before March 1. The regular membership fee also must be paid. Further arrangements for the milk

LEGISLATURE HAS BILL REPEALING BANK STOCK TAX

Controversy Over Present Taxation Method Prompts Repeal Movement

Madison — Troubles of Wisconsin banks, relating to the manner in which they are taxed, appear to be on the same wane since the introduction yesterday in the state senate of a bill by the committee on corporations which would, if passed, eliminate the state tax on capital stock of all state, national and savings banks, trust companies and mutual loan corporations, and substitute a tax on the income of all such banks and companies.

For several years the present method of taxation has been the subject of civil suits to test the law. Test cases were brought in the circuit courts of western Wisconsin and in Milwaukee, by the Wisconsin Bankers' association, representing individual banks. In Milwaukee a number of the cases were settled by a compromise with city taxing officials by which the city is said to have settled for half of the disputed tax.

Among other things the bill provides that the tax on incomes shall be in lieu of all taxes on capital, surplus and property of the banks except that no real estate owned by any bank or banking association or constituting the whole or any part of its capital, surplus or assets shall be exempt from taxation. The bill repeals and reletters portions of the tax laws relating to banks and inserts the new section which would take the section number 70.40 if passed.

NEW COUNTY MAP GOES TO PRINTER

Every Piece of Property in Rural Districts Shown on New Map

The first map of Outagamie-co., showing location of properties, highways, rural routes, schools, cheese factories and town halls made in many years has just been compiled by Herman J. Kamps, assisted by engineers and other technical experts. The copy was sent to Rand, McNally Co., map printers at Chicago this week and the maps probably will be ready for distribution the latter part of February.

Work on the maps was started about five months ago and it was hoped that the maps would be completed by the first of the year but the work required much more time than was expected. Several weeks were required to secure all the descriptions and plat all the property in the town of Oneida alone.

The map shows the location and gives the description of all the rural property in the county. The name of the owner and the number of acres in each plat is accurately shown. Information was taken quite largely from records of the assessor and the county surveyor.

The maps will be printed in colors. One of the features in the maps is the marking of rural routes and town highways. Every rural route is plainly marked and the direction the rural carrier travels is indicated by arrows. The rural route feature of the map was prepared with the cooperation of the postmasters. The maps will be distributed by Kamps, Becker and Kamps.

WOULD ADD $10,000 TO APPROPRIATIONS FOR CONSERVATION

By Associated Press
Madison—Ten thousand dollars annually would be added to the appropriation for the state conservation commission under a bill introduced in the state senate by Senator Merritt White of Winneconne.

The bill contemplates additional appropriation for probable use in part to compensate game wardens, a number of whom were laid off recently by the commission because of insufficiency of the present appropriations to meet salaries. The measure is slated for committee hearing soon.

PICK 12 STUDENTS FOR JUNIOR PLAY

Twelve students were chosen to take part in the Appleton high school Junior class play, "A Successful Calamity," following tryouts this week. Selections were made by Miss Ruth McKennan, head of the dramatics department. The twelve are Charlotte Schuelke, Josephine Buchanan, Lella Boetcher, Louise Thompson, Carl Schiebeler, John Cadlin, John Powell, Claire Miller, Andrew Montgomery, Robert Wolf, Herman Schwager and Douglas Kaufman. Honorable mention was given to Josephine Arndt and Dorothy Smith.

The play will be presented Feb. 23. Clare Kummer, who is the writer of many successful plays, is the author of "A Successful Calamity."

BANK RENTS STORE FOR RESTAURANT

Appleton is to have a new restaurant in the building at Oneida-st and Midway formerly occupied by Irving Zuelke, music dealer. Charles Williams has leased the store from the Citizens National bank and will take possession shortly after March 1.

Mr. Williams at one time was proprietor of the Palace candy store and later moved to Chicago to engage in business. He intends to reestablish himself in Appleton, conducting a restaurant and lunch counter. He is spending a few days in Chicago making arrangements for his equipment.

WHITE WOULD MAKE IT DANGEROUS TO CRITICIZE ON PAPER

Madison — Criticism or other comment upon any person which appears in a periodical or newspaper without the true name of the writer attached would subject the publisher of the periodical to a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100, a bill introduced in the state senate by Senator M. F. White of Winneconne provides.

Many owners, managers, publishers or editor of a newspaper, magazine or other publication who shall permit a communication which criticizes or comments upon any person to appear in the columns of his paper without having the true name of the writer appear therewith, is guilty of misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine," the bill reads.

Notice To Appleton Bank Patrons---

An analysis of the cost of doing business has revealed to the banks of Appleton that the cost to a bank in taking care of small checking accounts has become burdensome.

We find there are today a very large number of small checking accounts in Appleton. The expense of taking care of these accounts between banks and within banks, furnishing pass-books, check books, statements, and clerical help, far exceeds any profit that can be made from such accounts.

In many cities, banks do not accept checking accounts having an average balance of less than $200.00 on account of the large burden of expense caused by carrying them. In other cities, a service charge of $1.00 per month is made on accounts averaging less than $100.00.

After careful consideration of the matter, the Banks named below have decided to make the following Service Charge:

When average balance for any month falls below $50. ----- 50c

The first charge will be made between the 1st and 10 of March, 1925, for February accounts

Exceptions will be made for religious, educational, fraternal and welfare organizations.

Where depositors cannot build up their balances to the required amounts, it is suggested that the accounts be transferred to the Savings Department. NO SERVICE CHARGE will be made on SAVINGS accounts and no minimum balance will be required in the savings department.

No checks can be issued against savings accounts, nor money drawn except on presentation of pass books.

It is the earnest desire of all Appleton banks to have the small depositor feel that he or she is thoroughly welcome to the use of every form of banking service available, but they are confident he or she will feel the justice of paying for this one form of service a part only of its actual cost.

In the event that this matter is not entirely clear to any present or prospective bank patrons, we would be pleased to have them call at their bank, where the officers will be glad to explain further and in more detail.

AMERICA UNDER UKASE
Ex-Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana calls Americans to a rather humorous contemplation of themselves as a curious race who, having freedom, have deliberately voted it away in one chunk after another until today they actually suffer under a greater burden of bureaucratic control than did the Russian under the czar.
A "drugged condition of public conscience and stamina" is the way Mr. Ber-veridge takes of explaining our failure to fight back against the "debanch of excessive lawmaking" whose effect, he declares, is "the weakening of will, good sense, moral fiber and the destruction of happiness."

"No human being," the noted Indian-ian reminds us, "knows, or can know, what these innumerable laws mean. No human being knows even how many statutes are hidden within the forbidding covers of the thousands of volumes that contain acts of congress and legislatures.
No human being knows even the number of city ordinances, much less the purport of them. No human being knows even the sum of rules and regulations that unceas-ingly pour from our countless bureaus, boards, commissions and departments of government, every one of which bureaucratic edicts has the force and effect of enactments by legislative bodies."

We do not believe that this is a very great exaggeration of the facts. The citizen has truly "become a cringing subject and the official a vexatious tyrant."

And at this moment a number of well-meaning people are striving to establish over America the crowning tyranny of all —the tyranny falsely masquerading under the name "child labor amendment," which would remove the constitutionally protected authority of the states over 40-000,000 young people under 18, give to congress the power to demoralize the home and substitute the control of federal jan-zaries for that of the family and locality over the training and education of youth, and set up idleness in place of industry as the builder of the nation's future character.

"We ourselves," prophesied Mr. Ber-veridge of present tendencies, "will have become the Frankenstein of freedom and created the monster that will devour us."

AN EDISON BUILDING
Twenty stories into the air is to rear a monumental office building and museum in New York, dedicated in honor of Thomas Alva Edison, "as a token of recognition by the electrical industry and the American people of what he has done to advance civilization."

Mr. Edison's inventions have made it possible for thousands more human beings to be born and live and enjoy life than could have existed at all without his contributions to the industry and the income building activities of humanity. Over a period of three decades one of his ideas, the phonograph, was the greatest medium for transmission among the American people of a better musical culture. Another, the motion picture, has served similarly for the transference of ideas and understanding through the sense of sight. Radio and the immense development of the automobile have come to usurp many of the functions once monopolized by the inventions of the Menlo Park wizard. But for the first fifth of the twentieth century his was the ruling contribution, excepting only the written word, to that interchange of thought and appreciation we call "civilization."

His principles are still a mighty factor, even if not the first. They are embodied in the new inventions which are gradually taking their place. The radio and the automobile, for example, could scarcely have reached their present state of perfection without his most notable creation, the incandescent bulb.

A man who has written his name so indelibly not only upon the page of time but upon the very life and population and character of the modern world surely deserves a monument. It is more than probable that the indefatigable Edison would prefer a great working, profitable building, with museum in his honor as its central feature, to any monument less utilitarian.

THE DRY OFFICER
Our periodic business of firing probi-tion officers is on again, this time assum-edly with presidential approval, backed by the attorney general, and scheduled to go all the way down the line wherever federal district attorneys and assistants and agents have proved lax. No doubt a shakeup is needed. But it is questionable whether any permanent improvement is possible under existing conditions.

The public respects and approves of the policeman. This influence is a salutary one in obtaining a high class of applicants for positions on the force in many cities.
Failure of the public, even while professing lip approval of prohibition, to respect the prohibition law and co-operate in its enforcement has been a natural influence vastly increasing the difficulty of obtaining a trustworthy enforcement personnel.
The character of many members of the federal prohibition organization has not been, such as to elicit public admiration, and from time to time the government in recognition of this fact essays, with much publicity, a cleanup. That is attacking the result, not the cause. If a genuine effort is to be made to obtain permanently a higher caliber of prohibition officer, the job will have to be taken out of the baili-wick of patronage politics and the law will have to be amended to obtain public backing. While the dry sleuth is regarded as a combination of freak and outcast there will be no rush of applicants for the position.

Many of the officers enforcing probi-tion have no personal respect for it. Some have had no hesitation about conspiring in its defeat. A law having no general moral backing in the community is under a double handicap. It is widely evaded and there is little heart in the attempt to prosecute evasion.

THE AD AS LIFE SAVER
To consider the humble advertisement as only a selling force and commercial agent in the community is a grave mistake and anybody who doubts it should apply to the Westchester Chamber of Commerce of Westchester county, New York.

Twenty fewer persons have been killed by automobiles in that county during the past than the previous year. In other places the toll seems to be mounting instead. The difference is ascribed directly to an advertising campaign, using both posters and newspaper publicity, warning Westchester folk against speeding, crossing crossings incautiously and the like.
People read, and not only read but imprinted upon their memory the lessons in the ads.

Of course this is only one of the many ways in which advertising not only can save human life and become a social factor but is saving it day in and day out.
No score is ever kept of the tragedies averted by the want-ad column. There is no record of the lives saved by social and hospital agencies whose equipment is the fruit of advertising campaigns. But the list is a long one nevertheless.

TODAY'S POEM
By HAL COCHRAN

ATTA GIRL
SAY, little tot, you're a real inspiration. The smile that you've got simply seems a sensation.
You take all the litter from out of our cup
—your cheerfulness seems to brighten things up.
The world, after all, is a sad enough place, so the world ought to just give a peek at your face.
The message it gives us, could travel along and prove very plain that the town stuff is wrong.
How easy you find it to spread forth in smile and giggle and laugh in the finest of style.
No wrinkle or crease on your brow. You smile, and we thank you for showing us how.
I wonder, wee lady, if you'll take a tip that is just meant to help as you travel life's trip. Don't ever forget, in the after-while, that it always will pay you to know how to smile.
It's sometimes too easy as people grow up, to feel that there isn't enough in their cup. That thought you may have, but well, ever erase, if you'll keep up the habit of cheer on your face.

Health Talks
BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
Noted Physician and Author
Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writer's names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written on a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, in care of this paper.

THE WILL-O-THE-WISP.
Here is as missive from Miami which illustrates a popular pastime of the will to do:
Dear Sir:
I have what most doctors call catarrh. It does not trouble me so much in Michigan, but from the day I arrive here it starts up. Just like a bad cold, and I cough and expectorate much phlegm night and day, and get sneezing spells and a sensation as of a lump in my throat choking me. The doctors call that asthma.

I have doctored with specialists and doctored with quacks, but none give me more than temporary relief. Most of them advise me to go to Arizona. Do you think I should try Arizona or some other high and dry climate? I have a good appetite, perfect digestion, sound as a dollar otherwise. I am 52 years old, 68 inches tall, weight 132 pounds, strong, active, wiry.
I take the Brady symphony night and morning to keep me physically in vigorous trim. Your advice will be appreciated.

Any doctor who calls anything "catarrh" is deceiving himself or the victim. I do not mean by that to condemn the use of the adjective, catarrhal, although it doesn't denote anything in particular.
I mean to say that a diagnosis of "catarrh" is just evasion.
This correspondent is badly afflicted with Billings complaint. Maybe he caught it from some of the specialists or quacks he has "doctored with". Most quacks purport to be specialists—in whatever the prospect can be persuaded to imagine he has got.
And I am ashamed to confess that quite a few specialists are quacks, to all practical purposes if not by professional reputation. A quack is one who professes skill or knowledge in a subject of which he really knows little or nothing.

Heaven knows what all the correspondent, aside from his chronic progressive pernicious Billings complaint.
He seems destined to travel a great deal. The climate he seeks is hard to find. It is about as hard to find as the fountain of youth was for a noted traveler of the sixteenth century. The far away climate always seems ideal to the folks back home. Perhaps that is why so many misguided persons with tuberculosis make the mistake of setting out to chase the will-o-the-wisp.
The correspondent deals a hard blow to the popular "catarrh" myth. Persons who take the almanacs and nostrum testimonials a little too seriously are likely to develop the "catarrh" obsession, and they are fond of attributing what they imagine all them to the home climate, whatever it may be. They feel, if they live in Michigan, that Miami would be fine for their trouble; Miami folks with the same obsession dote on Arizona; Arizona folks believe the best climate is in Oregon, and so on, round and round.

A dry climate, such as that of Arizona, New Mexico, southern California, is often more suitable in conditions associated with chronic bronchitis, particularly when there is bronchiectasis (dilated bronchial tube). But moist climates such as that of Florida, Bermuda, Michigan, northern California and New Jersey may be preferable for most cases of chronic bronchitis. The patient's physician, who knows the individual condition and requirements, is always the best counsellor to consult about a question of climate.

LOOKING BACKWARD

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.
Friday, Feb. 2, 1900.
The Post had arranged with a number of Appleton women to publish one of its issues for the benefit of the new city library. The women planned to get out a much larger edition than usual and to sell 10,000 copies. The money was to be used for furnishing the library.

Officers who were to serve for the month of February in the Sunday Evening club were President, W. J. Smith; vice president, V. P. Halliday; secretary, C. H. Packard; treasurer, W. S. Wescott; assistant treasurer, Albert Wettengel.

The woodchuck, on emerging from his hole today, saw a very conspicuous shadow which frightened him back. This meant another six weeks of winter weather.

Mrs. Rose entertained a company of ladies at whist yesterday afternoon. Prizes were won by Mrs. Ernest Otto and Nick Meris.

George Fox, letter carrier at the local postoffice, was unconscious for several hours after he slipped and fell near his home on Second-ave yesterday after alighting from a street car. Maurice Peerenboom, stamp clerk at the postoffice, also was injured by a fall yesterday on Elm-st. He broke several bones in his right leg.

Attorney Claude C. Cannon of this city was announced as candidate for district judge to succeed
Judge John Goodland at the election in April.

Burns Beach, quarterback on the Lawrence college football team for the last two years, left this morning to attend the training school at Indianapolis.

At a meeting of about 15 baseball fans last night,
it was decided that Appleton Baseball association would have no team in the leagues this summer.
The annual report of the officers showed that there had been an attendance of 15,043 during the last season.

MOTHER GOOSE
Higgledy-piggledy, my black hen,
She lays eggs for gentlemen;
Then they are placed in storage cold,
And six years later they are sold.

And who said there is no money in the poultry business?

Who has the last laugh now?
Egg prices are soaring.
People are not buying.
Farmers are not selling.
And hens are not laying.

The girl reporter was sent to the poultry show yesterday to interview the chickens. The hens tried to make her feel at ease as much as possible.

Here is a chance for all copundrummers to get first hand knowledge on the age old question: "Why does a chicken cross the road?"

Each year the hens at the poultry show lay a crate of eggs during the week they are penned up. One wonders how they are able to concentrate with so much noise around them. They ought to be successful at newspaper work.

Little Willie after reading the newspaper account about the fire in the pent house at the Standard Manufacturing company wanted to know what a pent house is anyway. Father tried his best. After guessing at pent house and fall, he finally concluded it is a hen house.

Don't you think it was a dirty trick of Mayruss to send Thirly Carl to the Armory with the tip that there are many cocktails over there?

Chicken Patty tells us there are some fine homing pigeons at the poultry show. Gosh, if only there were such a thing as a homing collar button!

IMPRESSIONS OF THE SHOW
When Chicken Patty got back from the poultry show, she wrote: "It was a wonderful eggbit. The birds displayed were of the most exquisite plumage, and I may say this with out exaggerating. It would be somewhat difficult to describe the various types exactly, and I don't intend to eggzy myself so. I got interested in one fowl and not being able to read the ticket I asked one of the judges who was eggzying the birds just what it was. He called it The Eggzyated Chanticleer. Just then a little boy piped up, "Oh, what lodge does he belong to? 'Now wasn't that eggzyasperating?"

No, children, the chicken show is not a Follies show, for not even Ziegfeld could afford so many un-dressed chickens as are on display here.

Iko made a rather interesting remark yesterday when he said, "Did you ever notice how birds of a feather flock together?" Why pick on the poor women who visit the poultry show?

We hasten to add Iko's explanation that he meant no harm, and that he wasn't referring to the hens at all, but merely to the young bantams.

Mrs. Henry Oudenhoven, Melvin Van Den Berg and Henry Williamsen of Oneida, spent Sunday here with relatives.

Henry Van Den Eng of Kaukauna, transacted business here Monday.

Misses Lorraine Schwinna and Irene Bloch of Kaukauna, called on friends here Sunday.

RUSSIAN SUCCEEDED

Feodor Dostoevsky, Russian master novelist, was one of these. Tales of crime always had great fascination for Dostoevsky and in one sense almost all his books are crime and mystery stories. In such a book as "The Brother Karamazov" for instance he devotes much attention to the record of a murder although the main theme of the book is the relations of three brothers.

But once Dostoevsky concentrated a whole book on a mystery narrative.
He called it "Crime and Punishment," and almost the same story might have been told by a ten cent magazine author in the languages of such publications without the least literary distinction.

But in the hands of Dostoevsky it becomes a profound psychological study of the criminal. No use for people who habitually feed on the typical defective story to try to read "Crime and Punishment" because nine chances out of ten they wouldn't know what it was all about and would soon throw the book down in disgust.
It is thrillingly interesting to anyone who is more interested in the mental processes through which a criminal passes before he confesses his crime than in a story picture of how he kills his victim.

THE CHASE COUNTS
The average crime story, as Mr.
Train points out, owes much of its interest to the chase of the criminal, the man-hunt. There is in most of the development of the hunting indeed down to remote ancestors when life and comfort depended on the development of their hunting instinct. Some people satisfy this longing in going into the fields and stalking game, while others hunt by proxy in the pages of detective magazines.
Many other kinds of fiction owe their interest to this fact—almost every last one of the Indian novels of Cooper for instance, in all of them there is a pursuit and the reader is kept on edge by this man-chase.

But there is nothing of all that in Dostoevsky's "Crime and Punishment." In that novel of crime the man-hunt, such as it is, takes place in the mind of the criminal. He is his own detective and in the end he brings himself to justice.

Because of this fact the book loses much in outward action of the kind that usually makes a detective story thrilling. But there are hundreds of thousands of stories of that kind and the number in the manner of "Crime and Punishment" is so few that they can be counted on the fingers on one's hands.

Dostoevsky knew more about abnormal psychology than probably any other novelist who has ever lived and when he set out to write a detective story he did it in his own way. A narrative that a thousand other writers would have turned into drivel he converted into a work of genius.

A MYSTERY STORY OF LITERARY DISTINCTION

Arthur Train, author of "The Nedie's Eye," published last year, and the much-discussed "His Children's Children," of a somewhat earlier date, declared in a recent interview that the mystery story has no literary quality, that in fact quality would be a defect instead of an advantage because the people who read mystery stories don't want the narratives cluttered up with exposition of psychology but want quick action.

"Literary quality is not necessary in the mystery story," said Mr. Train.
"There is no time for literary quality. The reader pays for a hunt, a chase; he wants to capture the criminal, not analyze his psychology."

Which is a true statement as a general thing but it has its exceptions like all other rules. When a genius writes a mystery story he almost inevitably gives it literary distinction;
whether he wants to or not, and it happens occasionally that a man of genius tries his hand at that type of story. Usually the mystery yarn is left to the contributors to cheap magazines, but now and again a genuinely great writer invades that field.

The Toughest Old COUGH

Can Now Be Stopped

Lingering coughs—the kind that hang on and hang on and rob a man of his sleep—the kind that makes him peevish and all worn out.

Those are the breed of coughs that prove that common cough syrups are about as useful as a bottle of ginger pop.

The quickest and surest way to get rid of a persistent cough is to take a teaspoonful of Broncholine Emulsion four times a day.

It's made to stop the old-timers—the tough ones—and it does it without any loss of time.

And remember, there is no chloroform—no sugar—no dope in this grand cough medicine. It's a prescription for stubborn coughs and that's the kind it speedily conquers.

For ordinary coughs one or two doses is usually enough. Voigt's Drug Store, Union Pharmacy and dealers everywhere can supply you.

Dr. Scott Gives Talk To W.C.T.U.

The Rev. Virgil B. Scott spoke on the Past, Present and the Future of the Womens Christian Temperance Union at the W. C. T. U. program Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Dutcher, 842 Appleton-st. The Rev. Mr. Scott encouraged the temperance workers and gave them credit for all the work they had done. He stated that it was through lack of enforcement of the law that conditions are as they are and that there is more money in the banks, poor people have much better clothing and more children are receiving education since the prohibition act was passed.

A solo, "It Is There to Stay," by Marshall Hulbert of Lawrence, college was well received. Miss Helen Strong, Mrs. Oscar Adler and Mrs. P. P. Doeharty presented vocal solos and Mrs. James Warner gave three readings.

About 50 people were present. A social followed the program.

LODGE NEWS

Nine members were voted into John F. Rose chapter, Order of De Molay, Thursday evening in Moose temple. Three visiting members from Washington Park chapter, Milwaukee, were present. Plans were made for the Valentine dance on Feb. 14.

MOUNT OLIVE CHURCH SELLS OUT BOND ISSUE

Mount Olive Lutheran church has sold all of its bonds of the new issue dated Jan. 1, 1925 to replace the issue which matured at that time. The bonds were part of the plan for financing its new building five years ago. Most of those who purchased the original bonds exchanged them for the new ones. C. D. Ziegler is trustee of the church and Appleton States bank is custodian of the securities and makes the interest payments.

McTangle

LETTER FROM LESLIE PRESCOTT TO RUTH BURKE

Dear Ruth: I am enclosing Miss Anderson's letter to me. You can imagine my furious anger when I read it. What will that old woman not think of next when she is aided and abetted by Priscilla Bradford? It is no wonder to me that poor women were burned after being accused of being witches in the Salem days, with such gossip and scandalous loving old maids and women always looking into their affairs and putting their own interpretation upon them.

Of course, my first reaction was to take the letter to Jack; then I remembered that I was angry at him and had said I would not forgive him until he had made me the abject apology which I think I deserve. That is the reason, my dear, I am writing this explanatory letter.

Of course, I know I am getting you very much disliked by my mother-in-law, but I know you don't mind that. I am very much discouraged, Ruth dear. I seem to be confronted with all sorts of problems that as far as I can see have no possible solution. Is this because I am a woman of less decision of character and strength of mind than most, or are they the ordinary daily problems that everyone has to work out? I know you, my dear, have had many in your life, and you have surmounted them splendidly. Indeed, which I have built strength of character for myself.

First and foremost, Ruth, I must tell you that I am much worried over my baby's coming. The event which should make me the happiest of women fills me with worry and doubt which is particularly acute since I have told John, I know that John loves children. I know he will be glad to have me have more than one; but the first thing he said to me, as everyone else has said whom I have told of my expected motherhood was: I hope it will be a girl.

Of course, I suppose that is what they would have said to any prospective mother who already had a boy, as I have. But you can see it is different in my case, and every time I hear those words, whether they are spoken unthinkingly of the

Judge Graass, P-T Speaker On Monday

Judge Henry Graass of Green Bay, is to be the speaker at the monthly meeting of First ward Parent-Teachers association at the school building at 7:30 Monday evening. His subject will be American Citizenship as Applied to Schools.

A musical program will be furnished previous to the address, by the high school orchestra. Music also will be provided after the program for dancing and refreshments are to be served.

The association is urging all parents in the district to attend in order to hear Judge Graass, who is a brilliant orator.

circumstances of my adoption of little Jack, or whether, like John and my own dear mother, they have a feeling that I shall come to wish my dear little adopted child out of the way of my own son's birthright, it always stabs my heart.

I try to quiet my fears by quoting to myself the words of my mother's old laundress, who was talking to me one day of a child she had adopted, whom she said she gave exactly the same love and thought she gave to her other four children, who were scrambling about her knees. I asked her if she felt any difference between them, and she answered:

"Not a bit. I tell you, Miss Leslie, it don't make so much difference in who does the bornin' as it does in who does the lovin'." Little Jack has given his whole loyal baby heart to me. He is like a frolicsome puppy dog who has no eyes or ears but for the one to whom he has attached himself when that person is near. He expects love from everybody, but some way he has got into his inmost soul that I am his and he is mine, and I couldn't break his childish heart by trying to disabuse him of it.

Past Officers Of Pythians Give Degrees

A banquet was given by the past chancellors of the Appleton lodge No. 113, Knights of Pythias for members of the lodge, Thursday evening in Pythian hall. The dinner was followed by a business meeting at which the rank of knight was conferred on a number of members by the past chancellors. The next meeting will be Thursday, Feb. 5, when first rank degrees will be conferred.

APPLETON MAN HEADS COLLEGE RADIO CLUB

Thirteen enthusiastic radio fans organized a college radio club Tuesday night. Albert M. McCallen, Appleton, was elected president; Otto Jilek, Menominee, Mich., vice president; Velma Massie, secretary and treasurer; Marian Giber, chairman of the entertainment committee.

The president will appoint a program committee later. It was decided that the club should meet the second and fourth Tuesday of each month. Aims of the club were considered, and discussions probably will tend toward the underlying principles of the science. The club may have a radio dance soon.

22 YOUNG PEOPLE TAKE PART IN LEAGUE PAGEANT

A large attendance is expected at the pageant, "The Highway of the King," which will be presented by 22 members of the Epworth league of Methodist Episcopal church at 8 o'clock Friday night in the church parlors. The pageant is to be followed by a social hour. Miss Esther Miller is the director.

ADULTS, CHILDREN SHOW INTEREST IN HEALTH PROGRAMS

Large Crowds Attend Series of Meetings in Schools and in Auditorium

Kaukauna—Health programs and meetings Thursday under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' association were fairly well attended. The meetings arranged especially for mothers to be held in the high school assembly room at 3:45 Thursday was attended by about a dozen ladies. Nevertheless, a health talk was given by Miss Aimee Zillmer, of the state health department.

At the same time a health picture for school children of the lower grades was given in the north side theatre. Approximately 400 children attended. Picture in story form showing how to care for the teeth were projected. The children also were told of diphtheria and how to prevent it.

The public meeting for persons over 14 years of age which was held at 7 o'clock Thursday evening in the north side theatre was well attended. The meeting opened with a musical program by high school and junior high school students.

Susie's Kitchen band was the first number. Melvin Sager was the director. "A Million Little Diamonds" and "Skating Song" were given by the junior high school girls' glee club. Selections were rendered by a girls' octette which consisted of Coriell Runte, Loretta Drissen, Catherine Mayer, Helen Pahnke, Valerie Vanervenhorst, Gretchen Drissen, Dorothy Haass and Aurea Hornke.

Three numbers by the high school boys' quartet were well received. The quartet was composed of William Woelz, John Parent, Carl Grimm and Lester Lindernuth.

In addition to giving her own as a speaker at the health meetings Miss Zillmer spoke Thursday at St. Mary school. On Friday she planned to give talks in Holy Cross and Trinity Lutheran schools. Miss Zillmer talked on Social Hygiene.

The committee which arranged the programs for the Parent Teachers' association was composed of Miss Flora Heise, music supervisor of the schools, and Olin G. Dryer, high school principal.

ONLY $50,000 IS PAID TO TREASURER

Kaukauna—Unless Kaukauna taxpayers loosen up soon and return their tax money into the city treasury there will be many who will be forced to pay the penalty of 2 per cent simply because the city treasurer will be unable to handle the rush when the end of the time limit approaches.

Property owners have until March 1 in which to pay without penalty but funds have been coming exceptional slowly and a jam is anticipated during the last few weeks.

Thus far only about $50,000 has been paid in. The tax roll will amount to approximately $275,000.

GRIMM INSTALLED AS PRESIDENT OF E. F. U.

Kaukauna—Otto Grimm was installed president of the Equitable Fraternal union Wednesday evening at a meeting in Odd Fellow hall. Other officers are Paul Ott, vice president; William Klumb, Jr. secretary; William Klumb, Sr. treasurer; Arthur Hipp, adviser; Mrs. M. Kuohler, guard; Mr. Herman Paschen, guard; Charles Specht, other guard; Mrs. Paul Ott, trustee for three years. Mr. Larson, state deputy, was installing officer.

A banquet followed the installation ceremonies. Plans are being made to conduct a membership campaign. About 50 members were in attendance.

KAUKAUNA CAGERS WILL PLAY REFORMATORY TEAM

Kaukauna—The Kaukauna Maroons are scheduled to meet the Green Bay Reformatory basketball players in a game in the high school auditorium next Thursday evening, Feb. 5. The game was scheduled for this week but had to be postponed because of the Lyceum number. The Kaukauna team defeated the Green Bay team in a game there several weeks ago. Tickets will be sold in advance and a large crowd is expected to turn out.

DAIRY COMPANY CUTS THIRD MELON FOR STOCKHOLDERS

Officers and Directors Re-elected by Wolf Valley Dairy Company

New London—Stockholders of Wolf Valley Dairy company met in the Bank of New London Wednesday evening for their fourth annual session. The following officers and directors were re-elected: President, W. G. Kouna, Sheboygan; vice-president, Dr. G. T. Dawley, New London; secretary, Miss Elizabeth Kneuter, New London; treasurer and manager, Ed. Pohland, New London; additional directors like Poeple and Fred Loss.

The directors declared an 8 per cent dividend for the company. This was the third 8 per cent dividend declared since the company was founded. Another large refrigerator tank similar to the one recently purchased, will be bought.

BORDEN CO. WORKERS WILL ORGANIZE CLUB

New London—The local Borden Co. plant will organize a club composed of its employees, within the next few days.

The chief aim of the new organization will be to promote good will and fellowship throughout the plant. About 100 employees have signified their willingness to join. A meeting of the employees interested will be held sometime in the near future to complete further arrangements and elect officers.

NEW LONDON PERSONALS

Special to Post-Crescent

New London—Cyril Belonger was taken to hospital at Oakshoe, Wednesday afternoon to have an X-ray picture taken.

About 25 of the Royal Neighbors attended the installation of the Royal lodge Wednesday evening.

Frank L. Zaugg left for New York City Thursday evening, where he will transact business for the American Plywood corporation.

Miss Rose Edminster spent Friday at Appleton.

The authorities of several large English hospitals have decided to lift the ban against the smoking of cigars by women nurses—for the simple reason that it has been impossible to enforce the rule.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lazy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c. adv.

DOG LICENSE TAGS REACH NEW LONDON

City Clerk Notifies All Owners of Canines to Pay Their Fees at Once

Special to Post-Crescent

New London—The 1925 dog license tags have arrived at the city clerk's office, and fees for 1925 are now due for those owning pet canines in the city. The tax is $1 for male dogs and $2 for females.

The dog population in the city at the present time is 197. Local people allege that there are ten times that many dogs running on the city streets, but 197 are all that are registered in the city clerk's office. The remainder apparently have not yet become of the license age. The fourth ward leads the city with 73 dogs. The first ward has 41, the second 22, the third 36, and the fifth 26.

All dogs over six months of age on Jan. 1, 1925, will be required to have a license.

SCOUTS WANT ORCHESTRA TO CHANGE DRILL DATE

Special to Post-Crescent

New London—Troop No. 2, Boy Scouts of America, passed a resolution at its meeting Thursday night in the city hall, to request Alfred Schumann, director of the high school orchestra, to discontinue the orchestra practice Thursday night. This new date for orchestra practice was given by Mr. Schumann this week and as several of the scouts belong to both organizations, it is impossible to attend both.

Scoutmaster Freeling was appointed to see Mr. Schumann and arrange a settlement.

A new scout, Monroe Brown was taken into the troop Thursday night.

PREPARE SONG FOR BASKETBALL GAME

New London—The local high school held a "pep" meeting during the assembly period Thursday morning, to work up enthusiasm for Friday night's clash with Kaukauna, on the basketball floor. Old yells and songs were rehearsed and new ones introduced by Lloyd Jost, who acted as cheer leader, and who will also act in that capacity on Friday night in the Knights of Columbus hall. A new high school song, sung to the tune of "Doole Doo Doo" was composed by Mr. Stone, and was practiced at the meeting.

Esport is nearly twice as large as the state of Texas, but only a small part of its immense area is settled and cultivated.

One Thin Woman Gained 10 Pounds in 20 Days

Skinny Men Can Do the Same

All weak men and women
All nervous men and women
All skinny men and women
Can grow stronger, healthier and more vigorous and take on solid needed flesh in 30 days just by taking McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets four times a day—as easy as taking candy.

And what a hit these flesh producing tablets have made. One druggist tripled his sales in one week. Every body knows that nasty-tasting, evil-smelling Cod Liver Oil is a wonderful vitality, flesh producer and health creator.

But who wants to swallow the horrible stuff, when these wonderful tablets—McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, are just as good and so easy to take.

A box of 60 tablets for 60 cents and if any skinny man or woman doesn't gain at least 5 pounds in 30 days—money back. Ask Schlitz Bros., Downer's Drug Store or any good druggists anywhere in America.

Be sure and get McCoy's, the original and genuine, and don't forget there is nothing on earth so good to make backward, listless, underweight children grow strong and robust.

HIGHWAY BILL TO DISTRIBUTE FUNDS READY FOR ACTION

Highway Committee Completes Its Recommendations for Apportioning Money

By Associated Press
Madison — The highway program distributing approximately $14,500,000 in state and federal aid was ready for introduction in the legislative, according to persons who have been watching the proposal in the joint highway committee. The committee sessions have been executive but it was learned that the bill is expected back from the printers Friday.

The next important matter to come before the highway committee is the senate bill to abolish the ex-officio members of the state highway commission. The members affected are the dean of the University of Wisconsin engineering school and the state geologist. This bill probably will be taken up for hearing next week, it was learned from authoritative sources.

One of the final changes in the highway appropriation measure provides that the ratio in which the funds are distributed to the counties shall be 60 per cent on road mileage and 40 per cent on automobile registrations. A net balance of $6,000,000 is expected to be available for county distribution after the regular road construction and maintenance program is provided for.

The primary class of state roads would be allotted $500 a mile, the secondary class, $400 a mile and other roads, $300 a mile. Cities would receive $50 to $200 a mile on their streets, according to their class. The program would be financed by the automobile license tax, a gasoline tax and federal aid.

SICK WOMEN ATTENTION

Read this Remarkable Testimony Regarding Results from Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Norfolk, Virginia. — "If you only knew how many women and girls have taken your medicine by hearing my testimony, it would seem wonderful to you. Every day and every chance I have I advise some one to try it. It was in June, 1904, when I had given up ever getting well, that I wrote to you. My husband went to the drug store and brought the Vegetable Compound home to me. In a few days I began to improve and I have often taken it since. I am now passing through the Change of Life and still stick by it and am enjoying wonderful health. When I first started with your medicines I was a mere shadow. My health seemed to be gone. The last doctor I had said he would give me no more local treatments unless I went to the hospital and was operated on. That was when I gave the doctors up. Now I am a healthy, robust woman. I wish I could tell the world what a wonderful medicine Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is." — Mrs. J. A. JONES, 217 Colley Avenue, Norfolk, Virginia.

First—Stop Pain Don't suffer for an hour

When pain comes, stop it. Be ever ready to stop it quickly, night or day. Don't suffer any pain which a moment of rubbing can stop.

These include pains allied to rheumatism, to soreness, to lameness, to chest colds. They can be stopped at once. For 66 years they have been stopped by rubbing with St. Jacobs Oil.

As for curing the cause of the trouble. Nature usually does that. But don't suffer while you wait. St. Jacobs Oil causes counter irritation. Then it draws the blood to the surface to relieve congestion. In a minute or two you feel that the pain has ebbed. You rejoice in relief.

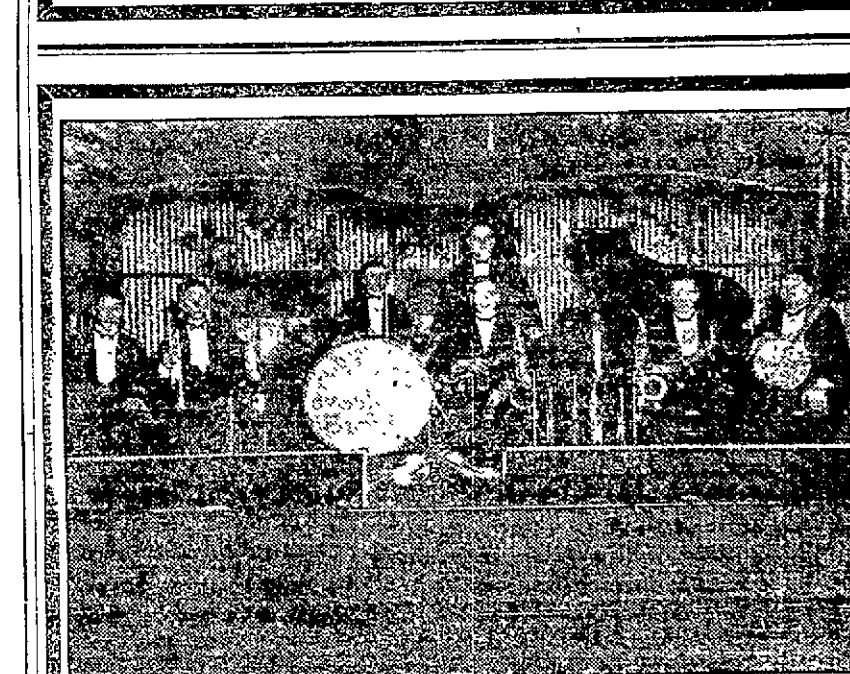

Perhaps there are other ways. But this is the one way that millions have used—have proved it for 66 years. You can rely on it. Your druggist guarantees it. Why drag chances when you know that nothing can be better?

Don't wait for an emergency. Have St. Jacobs Oil ever ready. Apply it as soon as you feel a pain or chest cold. Be ready to soothe it, to check it at once. There will never be a better way. Go get it now to be prepared when pain comes. It may save to you and yours many unhappy hours.

NEW NUMBERING SYSTEM EFFECTIVE ON SUNDAY

APPLETON PEOPLE ARE TO BEGIN USE OF NEW ADDRESSES

Postal Department Demands New Numbers Be Put Up as Soon as Possible

A few more days, or at the most a month, and all the worries incidental to the change in building numbers which will take effect on Sunday will be over.

For nearly a year, or ever since the city council adopted an ordinance changing the names of a considerable number of streets, Appleton residents have been more or less in a state of bewilderment over their addresses. Although the streets were actually renamed, residents were requested to refrain from using the new names until the signs had been erected.

Erection of street signs at every intersection of the city, met with general approval in the city, as it supplied a long felt need. Although they were a great help in the location of addresses, they caused a slight confusion as long as the old building numbers were still in use. Efforts were made to complete the new street map and assign the new house numbers as soon as possible, but the work took more time than was expected. Residents were instructed to get their numbers in November and attach them by Dec. 1, but owing to the confusion that might result in the Christmas mail, the time was extended until Feb. 1.

LITTLE CONFUSION

Irregularities in the uniform adoption of the new system have been occurring constantly, but not enough to cause much confusion. Some residents were receiving mail under the new address, although the new numbers had not yet been attached to the houses. Others took off the old numbers and continued to receive mail under the old address.

The greatest model of all is expected to follow immediately after Feb. 1. A large number of residences and business establishments will be using the old numbers or either by using the old numbers or by taking off the old numbers and continuing to receive mail under the old address. Mistakes probably will occur in the sorting and distribution of mail at the postoffice because of the mistakes others made.

The city street department and the postoffice have worked to reduce the confusion as much as possible. The street department has engaged extra employees to look up and assign house numbers. It is the resident who is responsible for making the change, however. The street department's concern over numbers ceases after Jan. 31. It will continue to give out numbers when desired, but will make no move to enforce the use of new numbers.

It now becomes the business of the postal department to bring about the adoption of the new numbers. Since the city has changed the numbers of nearly every building in the city, residents who refuse to accept the change will be receiving mail under a wrong address. Steps will be taken by the department to have the new numbers attached. Failure to comply may result in the withdrawal of a resident's mail privilege.

The postal department welcomes the use of the new numbering system, as it makes the numbering more uniform. With a multiple of 100 being given every block, and with the numbers progressing in four directions from College-ave and Oneida-st, the dividing lines, location of an address is simplified.

NOTIFY CORRESPONDENT

Residents were asked to notify all of their correspondents of the prospective changes in address, and the Appleton postoffice wrote to all publishers of magazines and other periodicals having at least five subscribers here and asked them for their mailing lists. More than 200 publishers have sent their mailing lists to be corrected. So generous was the response, that Postmaster Zuehlke had to notify them it would be impossible to correct all the lists before the February issues. The publishers were advised to use the old lists during the coming month, and use the new address the following month. The postoffice department meanwhile will do the best it can under the conditions.

A habit like that of still writing 1924 when the year 1925 has begun will manifest itself among many residents. They will omit the directional prefix "East," "West," "North" and "South," which will be something of a novelty to them. The Postmaster Zuehlke says it is likely to cause some annoying mistakes in the mails. The postmaster will not insist on having the prefixes spelled out. Initially, he says, will be sufficient. He does, however, request that the abbreviations "No." and "So." instead of the initials "N." and "S." be used for "North" and "South." The reason for this is that the initial "S." can easily be mistaken for "E." the initial for "East."

DISPLAY NEW NUMBERS

Of great importance is the placing of numbers on business establishments, according to the postmaster. Merchants whose advertisements bear street numbers do not give the stranger much help in locating their stores if no numbers are attached. Since College-ave and Oneida-st are the dividing lines, it is important that the numbers be displayed boldly on the business buildings of those streets, he said.

The postal department has no rules on the location of house numbers, but the postmaster suggests that the most conspicuous place possible be

Oldest Pilot Of Fox River Craft Enjoys Leisure At Menasha

BY W. F. WINSEY

The oldest living pilot of freight craft on the Fox river and tributary waters is Captain Joseph Martell, 837 Fourth-st., Neenah. The span of his activities on the water embraced the transition period from sailing to steam vessels.

When the old skipper began his life work, most of the passenger and steam vessels plying the waters of Green Bay, Lake Michigan and the Fox river depended upon favorable winds for navigation but in the middle of his career, steam-driven tugs were beginning to put in an appearance at Green Bay and were used to tow sailing vessels about the harbor and up stream to DePere, Kaukauna, Appleton, Menasha and Neenah.

Mr. Martell was born in 1847, sailed 44 years and retired in 1914 and is now working at odd jobs. At the age of eleven years, the Martell lad was in the harness with his father on board the schooner, The Traveler, skirting the north shore of Lake Michigan, with Green Bay as the home port. At the death of his father, young Martell, then 21 years of age, succeeded him as owner and captain of The Traveler. His first business venture as owner of the schooner was to purchase poplar pulpwood on Chambers Island, eleven miles north of Menominee and to deliver his purchases to the Rogers' pulp mill in Appleton.

Later Mr. Martell became identified with the George Noy Tug line of Green Bay as captain of the tug, Emma, two seasons, wheelman on the tug, Torrent two seasons and mate on the tug, J. B. Bennett. Later he acted as captain of the J. C. Marston for three seasons. In 1910, Captain Martell ran the tug, May Martell, towing scows and drudges used in the building of the Luther Lindaur pulp mill at Little Rapids. Captain Martell was aboard the tug J. C. Bennett when she was lost in a collision with the passenger steamer, Sagawabuck on August 13, 1906, twenty miles off the Green Bay entrance.

Although he lost a man overboard on a dark, stormy night while sailing from Green Bay to Menominee with a cargo of brick and has dragged anchors to shore a number of times in storms, Captain Martell was in only one wreck and that was the loss of the tug J. C. Bennett. He had a number of narrow escapes, however, and each time on his way to shore he decided if he reached safely never to take to the water again. But his love for the water was so deep-seated that he forgot his resolutions and rejoined his crew.

WANT MORE RURAL SCHOOLS TO GIVE HOT NOON LUNCHES

Superintendent Meating Strives for Higher Rating for County Schools

Outgamble-oo last year had a rather low rating in the number of schools that serve hot lunches to the pupils in the cold weather period. Only 34.1 per cent of the schools served hot lunches. Although this is the highest percentage the schools of this county have had in the last five years, it is only 1.0 of 1 per cent higher than the year previous, according to A. G. Meating, county superintendent of schools. An effort is being made this year by the superintendent and supervising teachers to get a state rating of 100 per cent or nearly so. No elaborate menus are necessary, it is pointed out, but children of rural schools should have at least one warm dish of food. The superintendent, in fact, warns against overdoing the thing. The following suggestions are offered:

1. Serve a warm drink with the pupils' lunches.
2. Have the children bring something in a dish that can be hung inside the jacket of the stove, or place a dish of hot water on the stove.
3. Prepare a kettle of corn, peas or beans to serve to the children who want it. 4. Get the cooperation of the homes and have volunteers bring a hot soup to serve at noon. 5. Have pupils bring thermos bottle lunches. 6. Appoint a lunch committee to prepare a warm dish to serve at noon.

The development of the window glass industry in Belgium is reflected in the total October sales of 30,000,000 square feet, as against a capacity production of 26,000,000 with all furnaces fired.

USE DICTAPHONE IN COLLEGE FRENCH CLASS

That science is aiding teaching is evidenced by the use of the dictaphone in Lawrence college French classes. The instrument having been introduced recently by Dr. Louis C. Baker, head of the department of Romance languages. Several records have already been made, and according to Dr. Baker, the results have been very successful.

The instrument may be used two ways, Prof. Baker says. A record may be made of the student's accentuation, and then by listening to his own faults, better progress may be made in correcting them. Again, a record may be made of the professor's vocalization, and the student may compare this with his own record. In this way the faults of the student are easily perceptible.

It also is possible to make duplicate records, keeping one on file for departmental records and purposes of comparison, the student retaining one for corrective purposes.

Menasha—Members of the Ladies Auxiliary of Henry J. Lenz post of the American Legion entertained at a 60th dinner at S. A. Cook armory Thursday evening. The guest of honor was Mrs. Doland of Columbus, Wis., department commander, who was the principal speaker.

The guests included N. G. Remmel, mayor; Mr. Sherrin, Mr. Lawe, Mr. McCullum, veterans of the civil war; members of the executive committee of the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion, and members of Henry J. Lenz post of the American Legion, Menasha. Sixty-five persons were present and Miss Grace Ferguson, president of the Ladies Auxiliary of Henry J. Lenz post, presided.

Mrs. Doland continued her talk principally to the Ladies Auxiliary of the Legion for doing and what the auxiliary stands for. She discussed also the child welfare feature of the organization. Mayor N. G. Remmel gave a brief talk on Americanism. Other speakers included the civil war veterans and Carl Meier, commander of Henry J. Lenz post.

SOCIAL ITEMS AT MENASHA

Menasha—Members of Menasha Lodge No. 187, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, gave the first of a series of socials for the families and friends at their hall Wednesday evening. Cards and dancing furnished entertainment. Sixty persons were present. The socials will be given the last Wednesday of each month and the programs will be varied.

The schafkopf prize winners at the card party at St. John school hall Thursday evening were T. Beach, Mrs. Jack Fisch, R. Meyer, whist, Mrs. Joseph Liebhauser, Mrs. R. Beachkofski, Jack Fisch, rummy, Edward Konetzki, Miss Sophia Stank, Mrs. Joseph Konetzki. The party was in charge of Mrs. John Sokolowski and 37 tables were engaged in play.

The Menasha-Neenah Economics club held its weekly meeting Friday afternoon at Menasha public library. The hostesses were Miss Emily Hoff, Mrs. G. E. Forkin and Mrs. J. Walens. A musical program was rendered. The soloists were Miss Pauline DeWolf, Mrs. Frank Dexter, Mrs. H. J. Rosenow, Mrs. J. Walens, Miss Edna Robertson. Papers on Wagner, Lohengrin and DeReke were read by Mrs. Brockway, Mrs. Schultz and Mrs. Matheson. The program committee consisted of Mrs. Schultz, chairman, Mrs. Forkin and Mrs. Bullard.

Mrs. Bert Finch was surprised by a group of friends Thursday evening at her home, 420 Third-st., in honor of her birthday anniversary. Cards furnished entertainment. Several of the guests were from Appleton.

MENASHA PERSONALS

Menasha—Mrs. John M. Hanson left Thursday for Milwaukee for a several days visit with friends.

E. S. Peters attended the funeral of Wayne Hodge at Oshkosh Thursday.

Miss Ida Daniel has returned from St. Vincent hospital at Green Bay, where she has been since early in January.

ENGAGE ARMORY FOR GAME WITH APPLETON

SELECT CAST FOR H. S. CLASS PLAY

Neenah—Co. 1 of this city won the football game with Steckbauer's football team of Oshkosh by a score of 40 to 36 Thursday evening at S. A. Cook armory. The game was witnessed by an audience which packed the hall. Oshkosh brought up a team of veterans, including stars from Marquette university, Oshkosh Normal and other schools. Neenah played its regular lineup, with the exception of Wall. It was nip and tuck from beginning to end with very little margin between scores at any stage of the game. It was almost a tie game throughout.

Madson came through with his usual line baskets, playing at center; Chapelle was next in basketballing, keeping the ball moving all the time. H. Kuehl, who has been playing fast ball the last few games, continued this pace, doing great guard work; Christoph who can always be depended upon to put pep into the playing never failed to take advantage of any opening. And Craven as right forward got into some tight places but managed to get out at the right time to make things easy.

Wilson was the outstanding star of the visiting team, playing his usual steady game at center and making the majority of the points. His best aide was Göttern, right forward who showed much experience. Boettge, a former Marquette player also had a great work. Both Devinney and Schadd looked hard but were too closely guarded to do much damage.

ORANGE INVADES GREEN BAY WITH TWO MEN GONE

Courtney And Ashman Suspended On Eve Of Two Week End Games

Infraction of Training Rules by Two Regulars May Cost Appleton Important Games

Appleton's prospects of winning its two week end games at Green Bay and Neenah this week took a bad slump when Courtney, veteran all state guard, and Ashman, center, were suspended for a week owing to an infraction of training rules. The Orange five is scheduled to clash with West Green Bay at Green Bay Friday night, and on Saturday evening will play Neenah high school at Neenah, in the only non-conference game of the Appleton schedule.

Guy Barlow's second string will accompany the regulars on both trips to play the Green Bay and Neenah seconds in openers, but with some of the best men on the string slated to go in for Courtney and Ashman in the regular games, the seconds also faced a hard row to hoe.

Fraser was shifted from forward to take Ashman's place at center, while Soli was working out in Courtney's place at right guard. Heleste and Jowley worked hard at forwards. The weekend squad was confident of winning both games, but expected hard battles.

Much depends on the West Green Bay game, for Appleton, East Green Bay and Sheboygan are tied for first place, and a loss at this time may put any one of the leaders out of the race. The Neenah game has no bearing on the conference, but the two schools have been intense rivals ever since they started playing, and each would like nothing better than to beat the other.

Neenah is coached by George Christoff, former Lawrence star, and under his direction has been going strong this year. The Neenah freshmen recently defeated Lyle (Liz) Blackburn's Lawrence freshmen and have chalked up numerous other victories over schools in this district.

West Green Bay had an open date last week, but played a non-conference game to keep its hand in. The week before, Sheboygan, beaten by Appleton, 29 to 15, in its opening game at the Chair City, defeated West, 25 to 0. With its regular lineup Appleton was hoped to take an easy victory from the Baymen, but with two regulars gone, the outlook is gloomy.

INDIANS EXPECT ROSY SEASON IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

President and Manager Confident Cleveland Club Will Finish Near Top

Cleveland, O. — Confidence that the Cleveland Indians will be a first division contender in the American league race from the start to finish is expressed by both President E. S. Barnard and Manager Tris Speaker. "Our team has a lot of possibilities," they agreed. "Due to injuries last season, our club finished sixth, lower than its playing strength justified. Shortstop Joe Sewell was the only regular not handicapped by illness or injury in 1924.

Speaker hopes to get a winning combination out of 34 players he has ordered to report at the spring training camp at Lakeland, Fla. This list includes 14 pitchers, 8 infielders and 9 outfielders.

Finding last year's experiment of sending his full staff of battermen to Hot Springs for preliminary workouts unsatisfactory, only Pitchers George Uhle, Sherry Smith, Jim Warda, Joe Shantz and Ben Kari and Catcher Alie Walters will be sent to the Arkansas resort, in charge of Coaches Jack MacAllister and Smutler Matthews. They will remain there from Feb. 14 to Mar. 6, when they will embark for Lakeland, arriving two days later when the fielders are due to report.

NURMI'S EXAMPLE SPURS RITOLA TO BETTER RECORDS

Thirty One World's Marks Broken Since Paavo Arrived in America

By Associated Press
New York—Thirty one world records have gone by the boards and seven have been established since the coming to America of the scurrying Scandinavian, Paavo Nurmi. Two have been tied.

The Finnish champion of the Olympics has shattered marks on 13 occasions and twice has set figures for distances which had not found place in the record books previously. Willie Ritola of the Finnish-American Athletic club appears to have been spurred by the advent of his countryman, and his record for the present indoor season almost equals that of Nurmi.

Ten marks have been eclipsed by the steady-going gait that conquers distance, for Ritola runs up to five miles with ease, and it is interesting to note that Willie, beaten in the 5,000-meter event when Nurmi first appeared in the United States and broke the record with a time of 4:44 3/5, last Saturday erased the mark of Paavo making the run at the Brooklyn college games 5 1/5 seconds faster. In this same event Ritola set four other marks—for 2 1/4 miles, 2 1/2 miles, 2 3/4 miles and 3 miles.

A few days later Nurmi's greatest track enemy outdid himself and bettered four of the times he had made in the Brooklyn meet. Americans who have not been backward in putting into use new figures include Willie Plant, the New York walker who defeated Ugo Frigerio of Italy, Olympic champion, Wednesday night at the Millrose contests and established a mark of 22:05 3/5 for the 5,000-meter walk; Lester Marchionni of the Newark Athletic Club, marvelous indoor sprinter, with one better mark and two new records in the dashes, and the relay team of Georgetown university which has beaten the 2-mile figures and then surpassed its own time.

Says Report of Game Was Made by Another

Replying to an article in the Post-Crescent recently, which quoted a Norway Mich., press story to the effect that he had falsely reported a victory for his team over the Norway cagers, Fred Bushey, manager of the Waupaca five denies making the original report and says it was made without his knowledge or consent.

Bushey lists his victories on the Michigan trip and for the benefit of Wisconsin managers who are seeking games gives the name of Michigan caging chiefs.

"My attention has been called to an article in your issue of the 26th, in regard to a controversy over a game of basketball between the Waupaca City team and the Norway, Mich., team. If a report was sent to the Post-Crescent, or any other paper to the effect that the Waupaca team won the game referred to, it went without my knowledge or consent. Waupaca was playing with a substitute lineup, the regular players being unable to join the squad until two days later, and my reason for not reporting the game was that it would be an injustice to the men composing the regular team to charge the defeat to the men who regularly composed the Waupaca team, but who were not in the lineup in the Norway game.

"Every game reported by me to the Post-Crescent, or any other paper, has been correctly reported. Our consecutive victories on the Michigan trip were reported as follows: Manitowish, 27-19; Dollar Bay, 32-27; Manitowish, 39-31; Ishpeming, 38-27; Michigan College, 39-27.

"For the benefit of other managers who might wish to arrange the names of managers of these teams: Manitowish, P. G. Luntin; Dollar Bay, M. Stevens; L'Ance, O. O. Deschaine; Ishpeming, R. L. Edwards; College of Mines, Houghton, D. L. Harvey. In justice to the members of the Waupaca team, as well as to myself, I request that you kindly use this explanation of any misunderstanding that may exist.

"Sincerely yours,
"Fred Bushey."

Lawrence Mat Stars Will Do Their Stuff In Opening Contests

Scholastic Wrestlers Plan to Get Practice for Intercollegiate Matches in Preliminary
aries

Appleton wrestling fans will have a chance to see George Hills in action at Armory G here Tuesday, Feb. 3, when the former Appleton grappler comes to grips with Hassan Volkoff, Bulgarian champion. Hills arrived here Thursday afternoon, and plans to make Appleton his headquarters once more, to boost the mat game here. He enjoyed great popularity during his former sojourn here and his many friends will be glad to hear of his return.

Volkoff is a recent arrival in America. He left his native country with the intention of winning the world's championship, and if he succeeds in conquering Hills, it is his plan to seek matches with the elder Zyzasko, Lewis and "Big" Munn, present champion. Volkoff is of medium height and although he does not appear to be very bulky, his 235 pounds of well-distributed bone and muscle make him a formidable opponent.

The Bulgarian champ has met some of the best wrestlers in Europe and the near east, and the tricks he learned there may be confusing to the American grapplers.

HILLS TRAINS COLLEGIANS
George Hills is keeping his hand in here with some of Lysle "Liz" Blackburn's collegiate wrestlers, who will appear in the preliminaries. Blackburn formerly was one of Lawrence's premier stars and held a prominent place on the team which came close to winning the collegiate title from Indiana. Three years ago Indiana, by defeating the Pennsylvania grapplers, won the world's collegiate title, and Lawrence, with Blackburn leading the team, was beaten by the Indiana squad in an extremely close contest.

The fact that Hills at first held out for a large percentage for the loss of the Feb. 3 match indicates that he is doubtful of the outcome. He has met some of the best wrestlers in the country since leaving Appleton and shows great improvement. However, he has followed the career of Volkoff and is filled with wholesome respect for the Bulgarian's ability.

Probably Appleton high school and the Actual Business college also will have representatives in the openers Tuesday night. With this in view Johnson has made a special price for all students, who will be charged 50 cents for admission.

Los Angeles, Calif.—Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul light heavyweight, accepted a $20,000 offer to meet Tony Puerto, Mexican heavyweight, in ten rounds, if Fuente is cleared of charges of violating the California anti prizefight law.

New York—Miller Huggins, manager of the New York Yankees, said that Washington would furnish the strongest opposition to Yankee pennant hopes.

Baltimore, Md.—Low Mayers, Baltimore featherweight, signed to meet Bob Garcia in a 12-round decision bout in Baltimore, Feb. 9.

MICHELINS MAKE GOOD SHOWING IN STATE PIN TILTS

One Appleton Kegling Team Has Chance to Get Slice of Bowling Money

Fond du Lac—Only one Appleton team, the Michelins, stand any chance of getting a slice of the state bowling tournament prize money when the awards are made in March as the result of the scores rolled here Thursday evening. The Michelins rolled a total of 2,577 in their five-man event.

Four teams from the Paper city rolled Thursday night. They were the F. O. E., Cherry Blossoms, Kuntz Kegler Kids and Michelins. The F. O. E. five was second high among the Appleton teams with a score of 2,437. The Kegler Kids were next with 2,386 and the Cherry Blossoms showed poor form in rolling 1,949.

In their final game the Michelins rolled 902, which was one of the high scores on the tournament alleys for the evening. They hit 867 and 908 in the other two games.

Out of the 20 Appleton pin knights that rolled Tuesday night, Ward was the only one who hit a 200 score and he went two pins above the mark. They roll their doubles and singles Friday morning and afternoon and expected to do better than Thursday evening when they bowled on the final shift, finishing up after midnight. All the men were tired before they started to bowl.

The next Appleton invasion is Wednesday, Feb. 4, when the Hotel Northern rolls.

SARAZEN'S SCORE BEST
The best score hung up in the National open golf classic during the last five seasons was that made by Gene Sarazen at Skokie in 1922. Sarazen led the field with a 288, shooting 74, 72, 70 and 73, remarkably consistent golf.

M'Coy Wins First Tilt In Cue Meet

D. McCoy Thursday night won the first game in the Fox River Valley pocket billiards tournament, 125 to 115, defeating J. Drawenek of Kaukauna in the Carr, Hansen and Pindle parlors here. The game was unusually close throughout and the result was in doubt up to the last minute.

Both cueists shot numerous safeties rather than risk leaving their opponent with a table full of open shots, which kept the many spectators on edge from start to finish.

Drawenek made the high run of the game when he pocketed 17 balls in succession, but failed to shoot as consistently as McCoy.

H. Oaks and H. Liethen are scheduled to cross cues in the next game which is scheduled for 8:30 Monday evening in the Carr, Hansen and Pindle hall.

Drawenek is the only man outside of Appleton entered in the tourney. In addition to him, D. McCoy, H. Oaks, H. Liethen, A. Selig, H. Hoepfle and L. Drexler will try for the valley championship and a chance at the state title.

SLOW PROGRESS IN FORESTRY PROGRAM

State Needs Cooperation of Private Owners for Adequate Reforestation

By Associated Press
Madison—The reforestation program which is expected to result from adoption of a constitutional amendment last November permitting appropriations for such work has not appeared in the legislature thus far apparently due to a desire of interest parties to work out a plan that will stand the test in years to come. One of the foremost needs in reforestation is the cooperation of farmers and owners of timber land, conservation officials declare. While the state can start the movement on privately owned lands will be necessary to provide timber adequate for future needs, it was said. In view of the fact that legislation enacted in the present session would be subject to change and possibly repeal by subsequent legislature, persons interested in the forestry program are said to be anxious that the plan finally decided upon shall be able to endure whatever assaults may be made upon it in later years. Relief of timber land from taxation until the forests are ready for use would be an important step in providing for reforestation on privately owned land, according to some conservation authorities. Henry Ellonbecker, assemblyman from Wausau, is one of the legislators interested in a forestry project. He has expressed the opinion that the tax on timber lands should be "very low" until the forest is harvested, when a yield tax should be paid.

STAGE AND SCREEN

LENORE ULRICH SCINTILLATES IN "TIGER ROSE"

The new film at the Appleton Theater which opened yesterday is "Tiger Rose," the Warner Brothers screen version of David Belasco's famous play of the same name. Starring in this picture is Lenore Ulrich, the Belasco star who made such a tremendous hit portraying the title role of this play on the legitimate stage. Miss Ulrich once more could hardly be in a better position to create a sensation in the film version of her play.

Her acting in "Tiger Rose" is of that intangible quality so hard to define, but that very factor is responsible for her remarkable rise to fame from a modest beginning to the coveted rank in the theatrical world—that of a Belasco star.

Lenore Ulrich immortalizes this play and the character of the wild cat child of the Canadian woods, inherited an instinctive hatred for all things religious, in her impersonation of "Tiger Rose." The character permits this talented actress to run the entire gamut of human emotions from the fearless child of the woods on into the woman's sphere of romance and love her heart is betrayed and beaten by circumstances beyond her control.

The entire picture scintillates with the brilliant, spontaneous acting of the characters. The scenes are of situations that are full of thrill after thrill down the spine and make you grip your seat and breathlessly wait for the next one, and when it comes it's another thriller.

"SINNERS IN SILK" BEST PICTURE ABOUT THE YOUNG-ER SET

"Sinners in Silk," Robert Henley's first production for Metro Pictures, opened for a 2-days' engagement at the Elito Theater. This picture, the newest of the jazz series, is new in more ways than one. It offers a highly original idea in that the central character, an elderly man in none too good health, is brought one again to youthful strength and youthfulness when he takes the "Stelch" rejuvenation treatment. With this as a premise, it was natural that Mr. Henley was able to develop a number of highly amusing and thrilling situations, which he did with the fullest degree.

Adolph Menjou, who has become known for his roles of suavity and cynical humor, plays the part of the old young man. It is undoubtedly his best work yet on the screen. Time and time again last night's audience roared with glee when this thrilling actor brought home a clever point by a mere gesture or facial grimace. Eleanor Boardman, star of "Souls for Sale" and other late pictures, was the girl in the cast—a typical flapper of the present day. She was more charming than in the scene where she was overcome by the cleverness of Menjou's sleek wooing.

spectator, who sees him in "Rough Riding," the fact that Buddy is the genuine article in the way of a western plainsman. For sheer dare devilry in the art of reckless riding Buddy Roosevelt captures the topmost honors. No feat of daring horsemanship is beyond his capabilities. During the action of "Rough Riding," he is called upon to perform a number of scenes of equestrian stunts that have all of the exciting attributes that have made the American western romances so popular throughout the world. A good actor too, is Buddy Roosevelt, who proves he possesses histrionic ability in abundance in "Rough Riding" in a number of scenes that necessitate skillful treatment. "Rough Riding" is essentially a thrill picture, but it is likewise strong in heart interest and the other elements that go to make up a highly entertaining photodrama. Don't miss it at the New Bijou Theater, Saturday.

AUTOMOBILE NEWS

NEW REO ROADSTER SPLENDID EXAMPLE OF ITS OWN TYPE

Car Is One of Sensations of New York Auto Show Recently Held

With its new T-6 Series E roadster, an attractively designed, smartly finished, and completely equipped model, the Reo Motor Car Company has made an addition to its line of passenger cars that proved to be one of the sensations of the New York automobile show, where it was shown for the first time.

The new Reo roadster came as a complete surprise to people attending the New York show. Reo has just introduced three new closed models, the Twentieth Anniversary Sedan, the Gold Standard Sedan, and the Gold Standard Coupe, and it was not expected that any other new cars would be shown by the one manufacturer. Nevertheless, it was evident that the roadster had been in the process of design and construction for sometime, for it was without question one of the outstanding cars of its type at the show. Both in body lines and in the completeness of its equipment, it bears the marks of custom-built roadster, yet its price, $1765, may be considered extremely moderate.

The first thing that strikes the eye on seeing the car is its attractive color arrangement and general finish. Two colors, Desert Sand and Pyramid Gray are used on the exterior of the body, separated by a belt running from the radiator to the rear of the body. Heavily nickel-plated lamps, parking lamps, an radiator add greatly to the effect created with this two-tone coloring.

With the low-swing body it has been possible to obtain the appearance of a fast, powerful, and at the same time, flexible car; and this appearance is not deceptive. The T-6 chassis, standard for all Reo passenger models, supplies the mechanical ability that gives assurance of this.

The ton of the new roadster is constructed in such a way that it can be raised or lowered in a moment's time. For that matter, it can be completely removed or put back in place in almost as short a period. The top is of a heavy double texture, long-grain fabric, heavily nickel-plated and adapted to use on a model where the top is apt to be folded a good share of the time. Upholstering is in hand-huffed Dual-tone leather, the same material being used for both the regular seat and the rumble seat which opens from under the rear deck. Sides, inner surfaces of doors, and other exposed parts of the interior are covered with the same leather.

There is an instrument board of American Walnut attached to the cowl frame, and on this is mounted a rust-proof metal plate with speedometer, ammeter, cigar lighter, instrument light and clock grouped in a cluster assembly.

The windshield proper is in one piece, but there are integral side wings adjustable for purposes of controlling ventilation. An automatic windshield wiper is a part of the standard equipment. Rubber padded steps on the wing bumpers in the rear and on the rear fenders allow access to the rumble seat. When the seat is not in use, the rear compartment is covered by a deck which folds smoothly into the body on other occasions. The rumble seat may be removed entirely if space is desired for carrying large packages.

Opening on the right side of the body is a compartment large enough and long enough for golf bags and a number of other packages. Through this compartment, ready access to the storage battery is also obtained.

All in all, the new Reo deserves recognition as one of the smoothest and one of the most truly representative models of the sport roadster type to be found. It is predicted that it will find a ready market among young buyers during the coming seasons.

CADILLAC LINE HAS MANY BODIES

The Cadillac standard line of bodies, built upon the same chassis as the custom bodies, but retaining the 132-inch wheelbase length throughout, includes, besides the new Cadillac coach, a two-passenger roadster, four passenger phaeton, seven-passenger touring car, four-passenger Victoria, a seven-passenger sedan and an eight-passenger Imperial. Here also a wide variety of color schemes is offered in both paint and luxury finish. The newly designed radiator casing is used throughout and is nickel-plated, as are also the head lamps, side lamps and hub caps. The hood is of new design and has a nickel-plated center line. The open models have a heading from the radiator entirely around the car. In this line interest centers in the new Cadillac coach, which is being concentrated upon as an outstanding example of what can be accomplished in producing a closed body of the latest grade at the open car price. The Cadillac coach combines the refinements of comfort, finish and interior appointments with the structural strength of construction associated with the whole Cadillac line.

BEST YEAR FOR DODGE BROTHERS

Gain 35.6 Per Cent Over 1923 in Face of General Decrease in Sales

The year 1924 was the most successful in the history of Dodge Brothers, according to company executives. While the automobile industry as a whole showed a production decrease of 8 per cent for the first ten months of the year, compared with the same period for 1923, Dodge Brothers increased their production and sales 35.6 per cent.

The figures for the remaining two months of the year will show about the same percentage of gain, according to John A. Nickolls, Jr., general sales manager. "It will be recalled that 1923 was the banner year of the industry," Mr. Nickolls added. "Prior to 1924, it was also Dodge Brothers' best year and in view of this, our large increase last year is especially noteworthy."

"It is not exceptional for a small company, or one that is just getting under way in business, to make such an increase. But for Dodge Brothers, who stand among the three or four largest motor car manufacturers in the world, to advance so sharply over an extra good previous year is conceded by all authorities to be actually remarkable."

"Bear in mind that every year of their history has been a good year for Dodge Brothers. There have been no ups and downs—only consistent gains. These facts contribute to the unusualness of the achievement."

"Our 1924 shipments to dealers aggregated 225,104 cars, of which 193,561 were of the passenger type and 31,543 commercial."

"Practically this entire total represents retail sales, as dealers stocks at the close of the year were unusually low."

"Dodge Brothers ended their tenth year with a total of 1,250,000 cars built and sold. Registration records show that more than one million of this number are still in daily service, giving some idea of the materials and methods employed in building the car. "Public confidence in Dodge Brothers product was never greater. Respect and admiration for the car's long life, dependable performance and comfortable riding qualities are universal."

"It is this public confidence, coupled with constant, diligent improvements in the car, that accounts for Dodge Brothers increased business in the face of a general decrease."

PIERCE-ARROW CAR IS "MY VACATION" SAYS MARY GARDEN

Famous Opera Star Is Recent Purchaser and Gave Pierce-Arrows to French

"The Pierce-Arrow is my vacation," Mary Garden, famous opera star and former director of the Chicago Civic Opera Company, sums up her experiences of 12 years' duration as a Pierce-Arrow owner. The recent purchase by Miss Garden of a Series 30 Enclosed Drive Limousine so aroused her enthusiasm that she wrote a letter to the Pierce-Arrow Motor Car Company at Buffalo, which tells in her own way the restful and comfortable that the Pierce-Arrow owner enjoys.

Among the five Pierce-Arrows which Miss Garden has owned during the past twelve years, were two which she gave to the French Government for ambulance work in the Vosges mountains. The task of carrying French wounded over the treacherous trails of these mountains was performed by the Pierce-Arrows without a falter, and Miss Garden received personal notice from the French Government that these cars had been the means of saving the lives of many wounded men.

Miss Garden's letter reads as follows: "The Pierce-Arrow is my vacation. In the last twelve years I have bought five Pierce-Arrow cars. In 1915 I gave two of them to the French army to help carry their wounded over the mountains of the Vosges. They saved the lives of many brave warriors. In the two other cars I have covered over 200,000 kilometers, climbing over every high pass of the Alps, and through almost every country in Europe—my only stop being to buy gasoline! A unique record of a great car."

MASTS MAIL BOXES

Vienna—Vienna has awakened to an epidemic of blasted mail boxes. Thousands of dollars have been stolen from street boxes in recent months through the use of dynamite. The blasting is supposed to be the work of a gang of criminals who recently instituted a series of bank robberies.

UTILIZE AUTO STEAM

Paris—The steam that flows from the heated radiators of automobiles can be utilized to operate most of the instruments on the dashboard of the car, experimenters here have found.

RALPH DE PALMA MAKES GOOD TIME IN CHRYSLER SIX

Famous Racing Driver Sets Up Average of 76.32 Miles Per Hour

Defying a Chrysler Six touring car—strictly stock in every detail except that a gear ratio of 3.75 to 1 had been substituted for the standard 4.6 to 1—Ralph de Palma, the famous racing driver, made 1000 miles in 7:36 minutes 6 one-fifth seconds, elapsed time on the Culver City track near Los Angeles January 5—an average of 76.32 miles an hour.

This is the fastest speed average ever made by a passenger automobile in distance run, according to J. E. Fields, vice-president in charge of sales of Maxwell and Chrysler Motor Corporations.

Not a single stop was made for mechanical adjustment, tire changes or even to add water. Beating its own previous record for 1000 miles by 2 hours and 41 minutes, Chrysler, in this latest run, is faster by 1 hour 2 minutes and 25 and three-fifths seconds than the fastest time ever made in a similar event.

The run was clocked and the time certified to by representatives of the American Automobile Association. The car was not certified by them as to stock specifications, this being done by Harry Miller, the famous engineer, builder, and several of his engineers. Their finding showed that the car was stock in every respect except gear ratio.

"Endurance in high speed work was the real test put up to the car," says Mr. Fields. The combination of 1000 miles at an average speed, including stops for gasoline and oil, of 76.32 miles an hour is a speed that tells a story of amazing endurance.

"If you have ever driven the ordinary car at 60 miles an hour you know it is a terrific strain on the car—even on very high priced cars. You can feel that the engine is working far beyond its normal limit. Not so the Chrysler. With the identical engine, pistons connecting rods, oiling and cooling systems built into every Chrysler, average 76.32 miles an hour for 1000 miles. Did it easily, without straining effort, without destructive vibration."

"It is one thing to show a burst of speed for a mile or so. It is quite another to hold that speed for 1000 miles. The first takes power alone—the second, power plus unprecedented endurance."

"A car with destructive vibration could not stand 1000 miles at 76 miles or even 56 miles an hour. An engine with anything but a perfect oiling system would be wrecked long before it traveled 1000 miles with the trouble wide open. A car with anything but a perfect cooling system could not possibly keep an engine cool at its topmost effort for more than 13 hours. What is even more impressive is the fact that not a drop of water was added to the radiator, proving not only that there was no boiling, but that the engine did not once get hot enough to have the water even approach the boiling point."

It is logical to assume that a car that can stand 76 miles an hour for 1000 miles has the endurance, reserve power and perfection of design to permit it to stand up for an abnormally long time under normal usage."

BUSINESS IS BACK ON SOUND FOOTING

General Sales Manager of Rollin Co. Says People Spend Wisely

"Prosperity is returning on a sound footing. People are spending—but spending wisely. The public wants a big dollar's worth—and is looking carefully for it," says E. A. Callanan, General Sales Manager of The Rollin Motors Company, Cleveland.

"We see this reflected in the public demand for a quality car at a regular price," states Mr. Callanan. "Orders are coming in from practically every section of the country. That we are in a healthy cycle of business progress is evidenced by the fact that our volume of orders is mounting steadily day by day. We consider this as a sound indication of a healthy awakening and movement of business everywhere."

"As a result the Rollin factory has been able to swing into capacity production which we are confident will continue throughout this year. A clear track for 1925 is indicated and we're going ahead at full speed."

"Our order books for the New Series cars are closed for the balance of January and February. Quotas for March and April production are now being filled. We have advised dealers throughout the country that quotas for the early Spring must be listed with us early. We are doing this to permit an equal distribution of the four styles of cars comprising the New Series Rollin line in various sections of the country and to forestall any danger of delays in delivery when the buyers who are making selections of Rollin models at the current automobile shows throughout the country call for delivery of their cars with the opening of the spring season."

AUTO INDUSTRY REACHES POINT OF SATURATION

The much mooted and hoisted saturation point has been reached in the automobile industry, which business today faces the keenest competition in its more than a quarter of a century history, according to the views expressed by the authorities at the annual dinner of Eastern Oldsmobile dealers held in the Hotel Commodore, New York City, on Wednesday, January 7, during the week of the annual New York automobile show.

The speakers, while stating facts as they saw them, also were highly optimistic, declaring that the next two years promised excellent business opportunities for the winners in the commercial battle. The views were that the replacements and normal new business would require at least as large a sale of 1924. The reaching of the so called saturation point was explained as being the end of the abnormal demand of the past decade.

A. B. Hardy, president of Oldsmobile Works, Lansing, Michigan, quoted figures which showed what competition had done in the past two or three years. In 1922, he said there were about 90 exhibitors at the national automobile shows, while this year there were only about 50. This indicated that in three years the number of companies had been reduced by almost one half. He predicted that still more automobile manufacturers would be dropping out of the race before the close of 1925. "Figures for 1924," said Mr. Hardy, "show that seventeen companies manufactured and sold 98 per cent of all cars manufactured in this country—leaving but four cars in every hundred to be divided among the other thirty odd makers. It is likely that in 1925 these seventeen leading companies will do their utmost to sell 98 per cent of the total number of cars sold."

FORD SHOWS FINAL ASSEMBLY PLANT AT NEW YORK SALON

Plant Produces Finished Car Every Few Minutes in Broadway Show

The New York Auto Show brought a new attraction to Broadway—a Ford final assembly line, in full action, producing new Ford cars at the rate of one every few minutes from 10 o'clock in the morning until 11 o'clock at night.

The famous old thoroughfare never saw anything like this before.

The curious began to wonder what was going on early in the week when cars were moved from the attractive and spacious showrooms of the New York City branch of the Ford Motor Company on Broadway at Fifty-fourth Street. They wondered still more a day or so later when bright new fixtures and conveyor line began to take form in the room, and then Friday morning, curiosity gave way to amazement—Ford was building cars on Broadway!

Thronged began to gather outside the windows, inside along the line of operation to see and to marvel. They've been coming every day since in constantly increasing numbers.

With the automotive industry celebrating its twenty-fifth anniversary, the Ford display is the unique and outstanding feature, as typifying the progress made in motor manufacture during the last quarter of a century.

In what might be termed a parlor, with conveyor line, fixtures and tools, resplendent in nickel finish significant of the silver jubilee year of the industry, the Ford Motor Company is showing by actual assembly how high quality parts, produced by precision methods, can be quickly and easily assembled into completed cars and so make quantity production possible. Visitors, and they are coming by

BUSINESS OUTLOOK FAVORABLE IN 1925

The general business outlook for 1925 is exceedingly favorable, according to Stewart McDonald, president of the Moon Motor Car Company.

Generally speaking, 1924 was a poor year in the automobile business. It was a "distress" year, inasmuch as there were several very unsettled features in the market.

First, a great many manufacturers speculated in automobiles last winter. They ran on heavy schedules and caused the dealers to warehouse cars against an expected enormous spring and summer demand.

The demand developed to be a fairly satisfactory one in 1924 and probably the second-half million cars were sold against 3,694,267 in 1923. Certainly not much difference and showing that the automobile industry is being pretty well stabilized as far as production is concerned.

But some manufacturers prepared for a market greatly in excess of this. When spring came it was apparent the "how had been overdrawn." So these big stocks had to be liquidated, and, therefore, a "distress," or liquidating, market obtained in the automobile industry practically through all 1924.

At the present time the industry is fairly well cleaned up. There are no warehouse stocks of old cars to speak of. Moreover, a severe lesson has been learned by the dealers and manufacturers, so that there is no possibility of a repetition of the over supply being manufactured during the winter months.

All the prominent manufacturers are running on a hand-to-mouth basis. The dealers and distributors are merchandising the product in a similar manner.

the thousands, marvel at the simplicity of it all as they pass along around the sixty-foot conveyor line where workmen in white uniforms assemble Ford cars almost before anyone realizes what is really happening.

CELEBRATE 10TH ANNIVERSARY OF CHURCH ON SUNDAY

Mount Olive Congregation Will Have Special Speaker and Organ Recital

Mount Olive Evangelical church will celebrate the tenth anniversary of the founding of the congregation with two special services Sunday. There will be a preaching service in the morning and an organ recital in the evening.

Prof. E. E. Kowalek, formerly of Kaukauna, and now president of Northwestern college, Watertown, will preach the sermon at the service at 10:30 in the morning. The choir will furnish special music.

Several features will be combined at the service at 7:30 in the evening. A mortgage which has been paid will be burned and the organ, which now is paid for in full by Olive Branch society, will be rededicated.

Prof. Theodore G. Stelzer of Oshkosh, a pupil of Dr. Wilhelm Middelhult, is to present the organ recital. His numbers will be from the works of John Sebastian Bach. The first will be the fantasia, C major, followed by a group of preludes, C major, A minor, F major, D minor, B flat major, E minor, G minor and C major (trumpet). Further selections will be five fugues, E minor, C major, A minor, B flat major and F major.

Two chorale preludes from Bach also are to be presented. "Wenn Wir in Hoeschen Nuten Sein," and "In Dulci." The closing number will be toccata and fugue, D minor.

DEATHS

ANDREW LAMBLE

Andrew Lamble, 72, died Tuesday morning at his home on Lewest in Kaukauna after an illness of six weeks. He is survived by his widow; three daughters, Mrs. Anna Boser of Sniderville, Mrs. Michael Miller of Ashland and Miss Nettie Lowery of Florida; four sons, Arthur Lamble of Milwaukee, Charles Lowery of Eland and Thurston and William Lamble of Kaukauna; seven sisters, Mrs. W. D. Solomon of Salt Lake City, Utah, Mrs. E. R. Henry of Cheyenne, Wyo., Mrs. Elizabeth Nelson of Milwaukee, Mrs. Mary McGregor of Kaukauna and Mrs. William Tuttle, Mrs. George Frazer and Mrs. Robert H. Wheeler of Appleton; six brothers, Frank of Milwaukee, Thomas of Crandon, William of Appleton and George, John and James of Appleton.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon from the late residence and at 2:30 at Brookside Methodist church. The Rev. W. E. Hulien was in charge of the services aided by members of the Odd Fellow lodge of which Mr. Lamble was a member.

PETERMAN FUNERAL

The body of Mrs. C.E. Peterman, who died Wednesday morning at her home, 532 Rankin-st., was taken from the Bretschneider funeral parlors to the Riverside chapel for funeral services at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. Peterman is survived by her widower; five children, Mrs. Albert Boehm of Racine, Raymond, Adeline, Ralph and Thomas of Appleton; four sisters, Mrs. L. Marquis of Appleton, Mrs. William Klatt of Beaver Dam, Mrs. William Thomas of Milwaukee and Mrs. Louis Schell of Whitewater; three brothers, G. J. Kluse of Kimberly, Oscar Kluse of Wausau and William Kluse, Columbus and her mother Mrs. C. A. Kluse of Beaver Dam.

The pallbearers were George Melchior, Fred Morris, Joseph Hageman, Virgil Brandenburg, August Ross and Gustave Schwandt.

FOND DU LAC ENTERTAINS LAUNDRYMEN CONFERENCE

I. G. Berg of the Uneda, Damp Wash, Peerless and National Laundry companies and George Schinner of the Uneda Damp Wash Laundry Co., attended the meeting of laundry owners of the Fox river valley at Hotel Retlaw, Fond du Lac, on Friday. Twenty-five owners were present at the district gathering held annually to discuss laundering problems.

H. H. Dodd of the Fond du Lac Steam Laundry, vice president of the Wisconsin Laundry Owners' association, was the principal speaker. He talked on Wet Wash. Ven Huesbach of Eau Claire, spoke on advertising and salesmanship and R. L. Wheeler of Milwaukee led a discussion on bundle laundry. R. D. Wright of Menasha, talked on The Small Town Laundry.

that the acts took place in Washington. He admits it could be tried in Montana but prefers Washington. Ninth, the nomination of Mr. Stone is held up by the senate pending further information on the whole case. The administration's friends say he had to pursue the case when he was convinced that irregularities had occurred.

CHARGE PERSECUTION
Tenth, friends of Senator Wheeler say he has nothing to fear but that he is being made the victim of political persecution and that all sorts of technicalities can be trumped up if the government wants to do so.

So everybody is right and nobody is wrong. Mr. Stone can't stop now lest he be accused of trying to coax the senate into confirming him for the supreme court. Mr. Wheeler doesn't want to be placed on trial in two places at the same time on virtually the same ground and with the prestige of the government affecting proceedings instituted here.

The radicals in the senate in the Republican group and the Democrats constitute a majority and if they become convinced that the whole thing is the sequel of a political plot they may hold up the nomination of Mr. Stone even though they think he was dragged into the maelstrom innocent of any crime.

And thus the situation may continue till Mar. 4, when a new senate comes into power and where a majority can be assembled to confirm Mr. Stone's nomination. Confirmation under such circumstances would become purely partisan and the hope of Mr. Stone's friends is that they can break down the political barriers between now and Mar. 4 so that he will go to the highest court in the land with bipartisan support.

GIVEN CHANCE TO SETTLE WITH GIRL HE WRONGED

Following his conviction of a statutory offense involving a 15-year-old Horonville girl Thursday, Arlie Porath, of Oshkosh, appeared before Judge A. M. Spencer in municipal court again in the afternoon to receive his sentence. He was given the alternative of a workhouse sentence or settling with the young mother for the sum of $500. He is still held in jail, but it is expected he will try to raise the money.

FORMER TREASURER ON TRIAL FOR EMBEZZLING

A jury was drawn in municipal court Thursday to try the case of the State of Wisconsin vs. Michael Glasheen, former treasurer of the Beaulieu hill school district in the town of Buchanan, who was charged with embezzling school funds. The case had been held open to allow the man an opportunity to square his accounts with the district. The time for settlement was expiring. Glasheen was bound over by Judge A. M. Spencer to the upper branch of the municipal court Thursday to stand trial.

DIRECTORS OF EIGHT SCHOOLS AT CONFERENCE

Directors of eight vocational schools of the Fox River valley held the second of a series of conferences Friday at Appleton Vocational school. The morning and the early part of the afternoon was spent in visiting classes to study the work of the local institution and the remainder of the afternoon was spent in discussing and criticizing the work. Each school in the group will be visited in this way to improve the curriculum, methods of teaching and text books.

SATURDAY HOURS—9 A. to 6 P. M.

Questions and Answers

ON THE SUBJECT OF CLOSING STORES AT 6:00 O'CLOCK ON SATURDAY NIGHTS WHERE WOMEN AND GIRLS ARE EMPLOYED

Question: Will Appleton lose ground as a trading center because Pettibone's closes at 6:00 o'clock on Saturday nights?

Answer: WE DO NOT THINK SO.

Question: Will customers travel IN THE NIGHT to Neenah, Kaukauna, Oshkosh or Green Bay to make any really important purchases, just because any or all stores of Appleton close at 6:00 P. M. on Saturdays?

Answer: NO, NOT AS A RULE—ONLY IN AN EMERGENCY.

Question: Will the open stores of other cities be used as an argument for Appleton stores to remain open also?

Answer: WE THINK THEY WILL BE USED AS AN ARGUMENT.

For five consecutive Saturday nights, Pettibone's has closed at six o'clock. The response by our shopping friends has been very generous.

On three of the Saturdays, we have done more business by six o'clock than on the corresponding Saturdays the year previous, even tho the store remained open in the previous year for 1 1/2 hours on Saturdays.

On the Saturdays when we failed to reach the sales volume of the year previous there were special conditions governing. On one of them the temperature went to 16 below zero. On the other Saturday, our Rummage Sale announcement had already appeared and people deferred their Saturday buying to Monday, to take advantage of the Rummage Sale.

This announcement will again remind our customers that we close at 6:00 P. M. on Saturdays during the winter season as an experiment. Should we continue to get the generous response accorded us thus far, and if our shopping public will continue to find it convenient to shop in the daylight hours, we would feel like continuing the practice indefinitely.

We convey our thanks and appreciation for that considerate attitude on the part of the public which spares our staff, largely consisting of women and girls, from the tedium of a long-drawn-out working schedule, not at all necessary on business grounds nor desirable on any other grounds.
